A Blessed Easter To Everyone At Immaculate Conception...

Blessed Easter, everyone! Last week, I had the opportunity to meet with my Parish Council, and thereafter a subcommittee focused on Leadership. Our plans for this coming year are to focus on community – the vision we have for our community and how we live out our mission and live our values.

As I reflected on our conversation, we described a parish as “a community of disciples.” Disciples introduce people to Christ – not only His cross but His Resurrection, too. Disciples sacrifice together, they remain connected, and they desire to grow.

I can honestly express how proud I am of Immaculate Conception. We have experienced the death of family and friends, we have welcomed new life into the world, we have had countless new faces (of all ages) join our community. From the highs of life to the lows, we have been coming together more fruitfully.

Our Alpha program continues to inspire new witness and raise up new leaders. Our Councils and leaders are planning well into this year, the next, and beyond with new programs, initiatives, and opportunities for leadership. Our Intercessory Prayer group has reached out to many people, and many of you have graciously made yourselves available for prayer.

This is all to say that we as a community have suffered, grown, laughed, cried, prayed, worked, struggled, and witnessed to the power of God. A true community shares in the life of Christ and shares in the life of one another.

To all of our leaders, new and longtime: thank you. Your dedication has allowed IC to truly take the next step.

To my staff: thank you for your dedication and sacrifice.

To our new parishioners this past year: welcome to our parish family, and thank you for making God a part of your life and witnesses to us and with us.

To our longtime parishioners: Thank you for welcoming friends and strangers alike. Your hospitality and love for our community is a big reason why we have grown, both school and parish alike.

To everyone: Rejoice, for Christ has risen! Thank you for your generosity in our charities, collections, and support of what we do. We hope that this Holy Week and Lent have been supportive and prayerful – but now is the time to joyfully celebrate 40 days of this most special season!

God bless you all, and glory to Him,

- Fr. Matt Heinrich

A New Way Of Giving @ IC: Text-To-Give (offered through Give Central)

As we joyfully welcome Easter, we give thanks to God. Each year, we celebrate the mystery of our redemption and salvation with special prayers, charitable works, and treasured moments with family, friends, and neighbors.

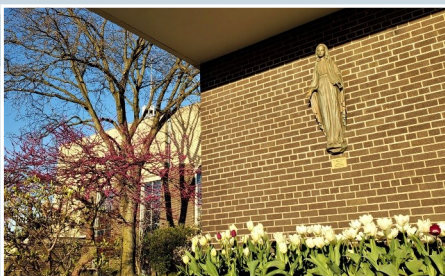

As our parish family continues to grow and evolve over time, we remain committed to seeking new and better ways to inform and serve our community – such as our bimonthly email newsletter (to subscribe, please visit: icchicago.org/register/constantcontact.cfm)

To that end, in addition to our offertory envelopes and online giving platform (Give Central), we are also introducing a new way of giving at IC this Easter by offering our parishioners and guests a text-to-give option. At a time when fewer people carry cash or write checks, we are hopeful that by providing this easy, convenient, and secure option of giving, it will allow you to support our parish and ministries in the way you feel is best suited to meet your needs.

Simply text "Easter" to 773-915-0503. A secure link will appear and direct you to a page where you can decide the dollar amount you would like to give. If you already have a Give Central account, your personal information will be auto-filled for you. If you do not, you can manually input your information and credit card details at that time.

By supporting our Easter collection (which constitutes a sizable portion of our annual budget), you help fund vital ministries and areas of operation within our parish so that IC can continue to fulfill our mission of leading people closer to Christ.

We thank you in advance for your generosity to us this year and we look forward to celebrating the joy of the Easter Season together at Immaculate Conception!

Parish Office Holiday Hours:

Our Parish Office will be closed on April 7th (Good Friday) and April 10th (Easter Monday). Beginning on Tuesday, April 11th and continuing through Saturday, April 15th, our Parish Office will be open from 9:00 A.M. until 2:00 P.M. (Our regular hours of operation will resume on Monday, April 17th, once school is back in session.)

New York Times Bestselling Author & Illustrator Visit IC School

On March 23rd, IC School was thrilled to present Beth Ferry (Author) and Tom Lichtenheld (Illustrator) as they spoke to our school children about their new book: The Umbrella. Ms. Ferry and Mr. Lichtenheld have previously collaborated on Stick and Stone and Stick and Stone: Best Friends Forever!

The Umbrella is about a young girl and her dog who live in a very dreary town. The little girl and her dog learn to spread light in a very unexpected way. Mr. Lichtenheld also demonstrated how he illustrates books and how to change emotion with just a few simple lines. Students were then given an opportunity to ask them both questions. They concluded their special visit to IC with a "snowball" fight. Our school children truly enjoyed their presentation, with some even inspired to practice drawing afterward as well. - Nicola Burke, IC School Librarian

2023 Easter Greeting From Cardinal Cupich

Office of the Archbishop
835 North Rush Street
Chicago, IL 60611-2030
312.534.8230
archchicago.org

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Risen Lord,

At Easter time, we proclaim and celebrate that Christ, our hope, has risen from the dead and is active in the life of the Church. He is our hope as the world faces so many challenges.

Think of our sisters and brothers in Ukraine and people in other parts of the world who daily struggle with war, civil unrest, violence, repression, and natural disasters. Think of those who are homeless and who walk our streets and those whose streets in our city are plagued with violence. Think too of the dark forces that continue to polarize our society and result in our own sinfulness, and the suffering of so many in mind or body with chronic illness. In the face of all this, we clearly know our need for the risen Christ, who is our hope.

I urge you to reclaim your Easter faith and hope in Christ, especially as you gather with your parish community and once again hear the proclamation "Christ is risen!" We sing in response "Alleluia, he is truly risen," to express that on hearing this good news we deepen our faith that by rising from the tomb, Christ has broken the bonds of sin and death, and claims us as his very own daughters and sons of light.

Let this Easter season be a new springtime for us personally, our parishes and our archdiocese as we continue our renewal and commitment to be missionaries of hope to a world so much need.

Finally, let us pray for one another, for all those we love, and for all who have not yet heard or accepted new and lasting hope in Christ our risen Lord.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

“When Jesus had risen, early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had driven seven demons.” (Mark 16:9)

Popular Catholic piety sometimes posits that the newly risen Jesus appears first to the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is a happy thought, but it’s simply not what the scriptures report. We are told quite directly that he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, “out of whom he had driven seven demons.”

Why would the Gospel writer remind us of this unsavory detail of Mary’s past? Historians tell us women were not qualified to give legal testimony. On top of that, to be possessed by not just one, but seven demons, is unsavory and terrifying. What damage had they done to her? What did she do to allow herself to be home to such evil? It doesn’t seem to matter. Jesus chose Mary Magdalene to be the first one who saw him risen from the dead. He decided she was qualified.

Do you think that you are disqualified from seeing and announcing the risen Jesus because of your past demons? Maybe they are the demons of despair, confusion, self-hatred, pride, addiction, failure, boredom, laziness, or other sins. Well, don’t. In the light of the Risen Jesus, all these past demons make our witness that much more believable – only if we allow ourselves to be touched by the liberating hand of Christ, just as Mary Magdalene did.
– Father John Muir ©LPi

Pontifical Good Friday Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than 2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only a few.

The pandemic hit Christians in the Holy Land particularly hard. Most of them depend on pilgrimages for work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land and to maintain a Christian presence where the Church was born. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. Please be generous!

For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org or www.custodia.org.

Easter Sunday: An Easter Proclamation

*The hosts of heaven exult and sing aloud in mighty triumph!
 Let the earth be glad as glory alights and night reigns no more.
 Let the Church rejoice at the victory of her Lord and Master,
 Who paid the debt of Adam,
 Who frees those doomed to die,
 Who heals the broken-hearted and bind up their wounds,
 Who forgives the sinner and raises up the lowly,
 Who destroys death forever,
 Whose Kingdom shall have no end.
 God our Father, eternal is your love for us!
 Christ the Son, in victory you reign!
 Holy Spirit, set the Easter fire ablaze in our hearts.
 Together you live and reign and ransom your people,
 one God forever and ever. Amen.*
