Parish Expenses...

Last week, I spoke briefly about our parish's special collections, and this week I would like to draw your mind to parish expenses.

A parish is a non-profit organization that falls under the larger umbrella of the Archdiocese of Chicago. A great deal of our expenses come from payroll, maintenance, and upkeep of our various programs. We also pay regular dues to the Archdiocese.

Why? The parishes who are able to, according to their financial situations, help support the functioning of the larger diocese as well as more disadvantaged parishes. The Archdiocese of Chicago is among the top three employers in the state of Illinois and provides well over 50% of all charitable work in the entire state. Our main offices assist many other dioceses who are often too financially inadequate for fuller staffs to serve a wide variety of needs (e.g., record keeping, legal advocacy, etc.).

In our case, as you can review annually from our parish reports, IC has recently produced a modest surplus of income. This, however, should be viewed in the light of many decades of deferred maintenance. No doubt you have seen our numerous projects, and many of them have addressed past needs. More recently, we have invested money into present ministries such as Alpha, Connect, Music, and Hospitality. We are also expanding our efforts this year with a pilot youth program (IC Teen Club) as well as more coordinated efforts of service.

All of these things come at a cost, directly funded by donations. Thankfully, we do have many volunteers, which makes the breadth of what we do possible, but we have also invested resources to train them, not only for their primary functions (i.e., ministries), but also in administration/leadership (e.g., recruitment, strategy, etc.). Investing in our leaders - staff or volunteers - is also essential. Organization and efficiency can do more with money and resources than anything else, and it is worth putting time into.

Perhaps many people view churches as just places where Masses and Sacraments happen, but we play a larger role in a local community, and even the city, than one might realize. Your continued support allows my staff, leaders, and me to find new ways to serve God and others. Please look forward to future articles on the subject and thank you for your generosity and time.

- Fr. Matt

(Practicing) Catholic: Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments...

Who Do You Say That I Am?...

I once knew a very devout woman whose adult Godchild had fallen away from the practice of the faith. This Godchild still believed in God, and even felt a sense of belonging in the Church. He was a good and kind person. But poor catechesis and a society that confuses pleasure with joy had left him lax in practice, without an appreciation of the sacraments. He was making choices that threatened his soul.

His godmother wanted more for him. She planned to speak with him about his life, hoping to encourage him to return to the practice of the faith. She knew that, when she brought this up, he would reply that it wasn't important to attend Mass or to receive the Eucharist, that was all just "extra."

She told me that she was going to begin their conversation by asking him the question Jesus poses to Peter in Matthew 16:15 – the critical question in all our lives, the question whose answer will define what we become in this world and the next.

Her Godson knew the answer. She was confident, unshakably, that he did. He may have forgotten it or ignored it. He may have tried to convince himself he wasn't entirely sure. He may have refused to give an answer. But he knew it. He knew the answer.

There is a reason that, after Peter's response, Jesus gives him the keys to the kingdom of heaven.

"Who do you say that I am?"

Let our whole lives be our answer.

"You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." – Matthew 16:16
