Ms. Pawelek's First Grade Class

Our First Grade children in Room 9 have been enjoying wonderful experiences with their buddies from William House, Room 4. Buddy activities are a part of IC's SEL (Social Emotional Learning) program that is designed to help every student build a friendship with another child from a different grade. Buddies meet weekly to attend Mass together, and also enjoy different activities during the year. The paired experiences have been mutually beneficial and fun for all. Our First Grade students are extremely happy and excited to see their older buddies, and upper grade students enjoy being leaders and setting good examples for the younger ones.

Please join our parish family in prayer ...

Community Outreach

Please join us as we gather to make sandwiches for The Port Ministries on Wednesday, January 25th @ 5:30 P.M. in our Rectory Assembly. Please invite any others that might be interested in volunteering. This is a great opportunity for students to earn service hours while giving back to our community and assisting those in need! We appreciate donations of lunch meat (ham, salami, or turkey – no cheese) and sliced bread. Additionally, we will also accept donations of cases of water, bags of apples or oranges, as well as individual bags of chips. If you are unable to attend and would like to drop off donations beforehand, you may do that as well. Please contact Nancy at 773.805.3254. Thank you!

50 Years Of Pro-Life Prayers

Next weekend marks the 50th March for Life in Washington, DC – an inspiring, peaceful, joy-filled gathering of Americans from across the country. Even with the blessing of 1973's Roe v. Wade being recently overturned, the necessary work to build a culture of life in the United States is not finished. Sadly, the number of abortions annually is still well over 900,000 and many states, including Illinois, are enacting laws to make abortions less restrictive.

Please continue to pray that all life from the moment of conception to the moment of natural death is celebrated, valued and protected.

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was a kid, I remember the priest at Mass announcing, “The Lamb of God!” Frankly, it struck me as nonsense. I thought: Why in the world does God have a lamb? And where is this lamb?

John the Baptist sees Jesus coming toward him and announces, “Behold the lamb of God.” His Jewish listeners knew what he meant. God’s lamb is the thing that is sacrificed at the Jewish Passover and consumed by the participants. For almost a thousand years, lambs were ritually slaughtered and eaten in Jerusalem at Passover. The lamb meant sacrifice, freedom from sin, and communion with God. The Baptist is saying in effect, “This man will be ritually sacrificed and consumed so that God’s people may be free from sin and united to God.”

It’s crucial to relate to Jesus as a friend, brother, teacher, and Lord of our lives. But we should also learn to interact with Him as our lamb of God. That means we intentionally place on him our sins, sadnesses, and hopes, and offer him to God. Then we consume him to make us free. This is what we do at every Mass. That’s why he is the Lamb of God.

Second Collection: Church In Latin America - January 21st & 22nd

Next weekend, we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more about how your gifts make a difference, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Saint of The Week - Examples of Our Faith: Ven. Bishop Frederic Irenaeus Baraga

Known as the Snowshoe Priest during his lifetime, Venerable Bishop Frederic Baraga was a lifelong missionary to Native American people in the Northern Midwest of the United States. As an immigrant to the United States and to the native populations he was stationed with, he'd often choose to use the mode(s) of transportation used by those he served. This devotion resulted in him trekking hundreds of miles every year using the Ojibwe's main forms of transportation – snowshoes and canoes.

Barga was an incredibly skilled linguist. He understood the importance of knowing the written and spoken language of whatever community he served and, so, became fluent in Ojibwe and Odawa, a dialect of Ojibwe spoken by the Ottawa people. He authored the very first Ojibwe-English dictionary and he also authored the first ever book published in the Ottawa language. His love for languages was inspired, in part, by his love of the people he served. Over his lifetime he converted over 1000 people, natives and European settlers, to Christianity. He became the first bishop of Marquette, seated in the Upper Michigan Diocese in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. Upon his death only a couple years after being ordained bishop, even a snow blizzard couldn't keep hundreds of friends and mourners from paying their respects in person.

After his death, devotees started the Bishop Baraga Association. Over one hundred years later, in 1972, the Association presented reams of research and testimony to an official Church committee in Marquette to open the Cause for his sainthood. Following this, the Vatican officially recognized Baraga as a "Servant of God," and he is now being considered for Catholic sainthood. ©LPi
