A New Year

2023

After our Arctic Christmas, we look to a New Year and, of course, the continuation of our Christmas Season.

I hope many of you have kept your decorations and trees, because for us Christians the celebration of Christmas extends well into January. The Holy Family is celebrated this New Year's weekend, and of course we consecrate the new year through the Blessed Virgin Mary. We then celebrate the Epiphany on the weekend of the 8th. Some go even a step further, like me, to celebrate through February 2nd, the Feast of the Presentation.

Advent is merely the preface to the holy days which celebrate family, and a family's relationship with God. My prayer for you all, as your pastor, is to grow closer to God this year. There is no shortage of stories of unrest, war, politics, division, poverty – both physical and spiritual – and many other things. The light of God dispels the darkness of what we perceive. We will find evil if we choose to see it in everything. We will find God, even in darkness, if we choose to seek Him.

It is why this season is a hopeful one. God is with us. He is at work in our community. I have seen the good many people do here despite their own suffering. Religion requires sacrifice and the people of Immaculate Conception have offered sacrifice to rebuild the spiritual walls of our Church. The work is not over, though. We need our families now more than ever. Parents must endeavor to teach their children about Christ, to place into their minds the words of prayer and Scripture, and to live justly so that they can meet the world with confidence and faith.

We need worship, and people gathering together to worship. I hope that each of you who read this feel the call to be with us and pray. I hope that each of you who pray with us also help to draw others to us. I want our Church to be a place where God's peace is found. May God bless our community and our work together.

As we look to the future, I also look with gratitude at the past. My thanks to the work of my Councils: Parish Council (led by Suzanne Witz), Finance Council (led by Ed Peters), and School Board (led by Bridget McDonald). My thanks to our Holy Name Men's Club and Parents' Club for their work on behalf of our parish and school.

I am also thankful for our Connect Team which began Summer of 2022. It represented a major step in our development of our Leadership Process and our progression from Alpha.

Rob Lohman and Theresa Borowski endeavored to organize service projects in our local area with our Connect Team and Alpha Alumni. We have done our best to serve people out of love, showing our love for God by how we serve others. Thank you to everyone who donated food in December and for everyone who gave their time during a busy Advent season.

Next weekend, we will be calling upon all parishioners to consider joining our Alpha program, which I cannot suggest highly enough. Open your hearts to His will this year, and in doing so, be open to one another.

May God bless us with good health and just works.
Through Mary, our Mother,
- Fr. Matt

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

We hide ourselves and our secrets from God because we are afraid. Even Mary can seem too perfect to approach. The shepherds find the strength to speak to Mary and Joseph at the moment they see the child in the manger. They open their hearts and share what they've experienced. Saint Luke writes of the shepherds, "When they saw this, they made known the message that had been told them about this child."

When I was a college student, I visited Rome. Beggars often approached and said, "Mangia? Mangia?"

I didn't speak Italian and thought, "Why are they speaking about the Christmas nativity scene?" My friend said, "Mangia means eat. They're hungry." That's when I realized more deeply than ever before that Mary puts her baby in a place designed for hungry animals to eat.

See that baby in the manger in your heart. Imagine Mary kneeling nearby looking at you with love. She doesn't cling to God for herself. In that cave, from the beginning, she quietly offers her son to hungry souls. The manger means vulnerable self-offering love. That's the sign. This week that same manger opens our hearts to tell Mary about our lives, too.

Saint of The Week - Examples of Our Faith: Saint John Neumann (January 5th)

St. John Neumann is the patron saint of educators, immigrants, and, due to the miracles that secured his canonization, sick children. This is a fitting patronage as he was a lover of education and learning from a very young age. In fact, when he was a child, his mother called him "my little bibliomaniac" due to his preoccupation with reading. Born in 1811 Bohemia, in what is now the Czech Republic, he attended the university in Prague preparing for ordination. However, his local bishops were not ordaining new priests at the time because Bohemia was overstocked with priests. He inquired about ordination all over Europe but received the same answer everywhere. Not one to be deterred, John then applied to several United States dioceses. Receiving no immediate responses, the saint took a leap of faith and decided to just immigrate to the United States in 1836, during his 25th year, with only $40 in his pocket. This risk paid off when he was ordained in New York a month later.

Early in his priesthood he worked primarily as a missionary to German immigrants in Buffalo. His missionary work also created an opportunity for him to spend time in Maryland, Virginia, Michigan, and Ohio. When he was 29, he joined the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer (Redemptorists), a congregation of priests and brothers dedicated to helping the poor and most abandoned. He was their first member to profess vows in the United States.

In 1852, at the age of 41, Neumann became the fourth Bishop of Philadelphia. During this time, he organized the individual parochial schools in his region into a diocesan system. This change allowed Catholic schools to quickly increase the number of pupils enrolled by almost twentyfold. Over the course of his ministry, St. John expanded the number of Catholic schools in his diocese from 2 to 100! His passion for education extended to immigrants, like himself, and his love for learning languages made it possible for him to hear confessions in English, Spanish, French, Italian, Dutch, and Gaelic!

A man of the people, he could often be found outside the church walls visiting people who were sick, staying in taverns and public houses to teach, and celebrating Mass in people's homes at their kitchen tables. He was canonized on June 19, 1977, following three miracles, two of which regarded the healing of youth from grave illnesses. St. John Neumann was the first American man to be canonized a saint. ©LPi
