Discipleship: A Light In Darkness

I hope that everyone's 4th of July Weekend was a restful one. Sadly, as many of you know, the shooting in Highland Park, a neighborhood I visited frequently in my previous assignment, was immensely painful for our city and Diocese. Please join us this week in praying intentionally for innocent victims of violence. God has a special place in His heart for those who suffer unjustly, so let us also keep the family, friends, and neighbors affected in our prayers.

When I consider parishes, whether in Uvalde or Highland Park, they are tasked with a unique and distressing ministry: to comfort those who have experienced great evil, i.e., to be a light in the darkness.

While Immaculate Conception has experienced its share of tragedies as well, it is worth reminding ourselves that a parish exists to minister to its particular community. The Church at large ministers to the world through the preaching of the Gospel, but a parish must be intimately familiar with its soil, so to speak.

This past week, I initiated our first Connect meeting for all Alpha Alumni. I am happy to say about thirty parishioners and I gathered together to reconnect and to learn how we can continue to grow as a parish. I mention this in conjunction with the above because in our long-term planning we seek to fulfill our mission of "Love God, Serve Others, Make Disciples."

God is the source of goodness, and this is who we need to introduce to Norwood Park in work and prayer.

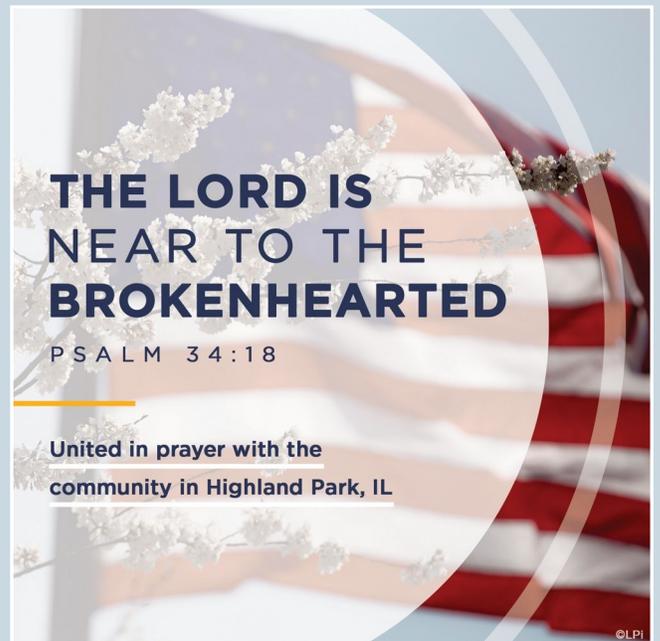

We need to love one another, and love is impossible without intentional relationships and healthy growth—the purpose of our Connect Groups.

Lastly, becoming a disciple is a prerequisite for the kingdom of God—not simply belief, but discipleship. The Letter of St. James famously said, "Show me your faith without works, but I will show you my faith by my works." This is what we are building towards: a sustainable model of a parish that is better able to serve parishioners, insofar as we promote their growth into disciples, and thereafter serving others beyond our four walls.

Discipleship means to follow Jesus, but this means that we imitate Him too. In a world afflicted by financial, social, political, and genuine darkness, we must look to Him who is our light and our salvation.

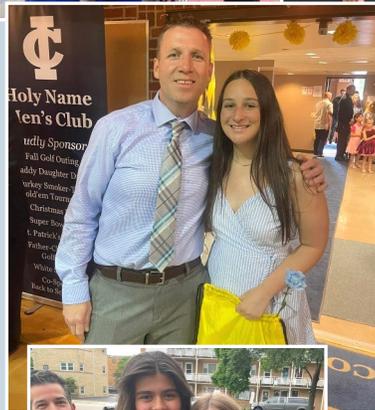

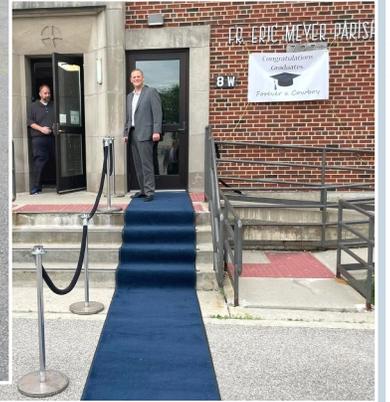

With that said, be safe and well this summer, and love one another. Join us for our Masses, prayers, and even Alpha, so that you can experience the growth you need to serve a hurting world.

- Fr. Matt

IC Holy Name Society's 9th Annual "Dancin' With My Daddy" Father/Daughter Dance

Following a two and a half year hiatus due to the pandemic, our IC Holy Name Society resumed their annual "Dancin' With My Daddy" Father/Daughter Dance in our Parish Center on Friday, June 10th. On behalf of the organizers of the event (Rob Lohman, Kyle Liebich, & Kevin Walsh): many thanks to all of the fathers and daughters who attended and to all those who worked tirelessly behind the scenes to help make the return of our Daddy/Daughter Dance a resounding success!

IC Pro-Life Committee Celebrates Fathers

Our Pro-Life Committee honored all IC fathers at our Masses on Father's Day weekend for their essential role in support of family life. Carnations and varied sweets were offered after all Masses. Free-will donations for The Women's Center were gratefully accepted, with $350.00 collected upon their behalf. Many thanks to the Leahy family for their efforts organizing this special event!

Statement From Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Archbishop Of Chicago - June 24, 2022

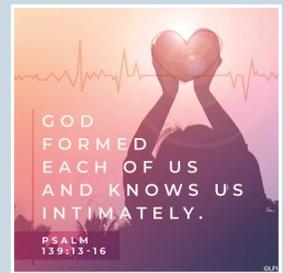

Today, the U.S. Supreme Court issued its ruling in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, which overturns the court's tragic 1973 decision that removed legal protection for unborn children. We welcome this important ruling and the opportunity it creates for a national conversation on protecting human life in the womb and promoting human dignity at all stages of life. This moment should serve as a turning point in our dialogue about the place an unborn child holds in our nation, about our responsibility to listen to women and support them through pregnancies and after the birth of their children, and about the need to refocus our national priorities to support families, particularly those in need.

The Catholic Church brings to such a conversation the conviction that every human life is sacred, that every person is made in the image and likeness of God and therefore deserving of reverence and protection. That belief is the reason the Catholic Church is the country's largest provider of social services, many aimed at eliminating the systemic poverty and health care insecurity that trap families in a cycle of hopelessness and limit authentic choice.

We also come to this dialogue as Americans, knowing that the principle that all human beings are endowed by the Creator with certain inalienable rights is enshrined in the Declaration of Independence, and that first among these is the right to life.

Make no mistake, because this ruling regrettably will have little impact on abortion in Illinois, as there are virtually no restrictions here, we will continue to advocate strongly for legal protections for unborn children. And we will redouble our efforts to work with all to build a culture that values the inalienable rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness for all.

This ruling is not the end of a journey, but rather a fresh start. It underscores the need to understand those who disagree with us, and to inculcate an ethic of dialogue and cooperation. Let us begin by examining our national conscience, taking stock of those dark places in our society and in our hearts that turn to violence and deny the humanity of our brothers and sisters, and get to work building up the common good by choosing life.

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

We can learn a great deal from Mister Rogers. Remember him? He was the gentle soul who found his way into living rooms worldwide starting as far back as 1968. Mister Rogers' Neighborhood was a beloved program that celebrated and exalted people, especially children. He taught us that we are neighbors and that everyone has a place. Everyone matters. He had a vision, born of his relationship with God that highlighted every human life's innocence, beauty, and uniqueness. To that end, he called us to be responsible for each other, saying nothing different than what Jesus said. Viewers quickly learned that life is not just about me.

"We live in a world in which we need to share responsibility. It's easy to say, 'It's not my child, not my community, not my world, not my problem.' Then there are those who see the need and respond. I consider those people my heroes (Fred Rogers)." It is so easy to look the other way. After all, I'm not the one who needs to leave home out of fear and try to find somewhere safe. I am not the one who is hungry and without shelter or food. I am not the one who has a child being bullied or ridiculed because of the way they dress or act. I am not the one being threatened with violence or unable to find meaningful work. The distress and agony of our neighbors are our distress and agony. We cannot walk by it with an attitude of indifference, especially if we call ourselves believers. When we no longer care, we have suffocated our souls. This is a great sin.

God's law "is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out." We all have a need for love and acceptance. That's why Mister Rogers' television show was so popular. It spoke to something deeper, something sacred about humanity. God didn't give us his law in a book. He wrote it on our hearts. We know what we need to do. It's a matter of choice. Love is sacred. When we love another human being, especially without regard for ourselves, it is a holy moment. These moments are often missed due to our self-serving agendas and rules. ©LPi

Saint of The Week - Examples of Our Faith: Saint Henry (July 13th)

Saint Henry was born in 972 to Henry, Duke of Bavaria, Germany, and his wife Gisela of Burgundy. Saint Henry's early life was permeated with Christianity, among those who guided his education was Bishop Wolfgang of Ratisbon, who became a saint himself. In 995, Saint Henry succeeded his father as Duke of Bavaria, and in 1002, upon the death of his cousin, Otho III, he was elected emperor. In 1014, Saint Henry undertook the long journey from Germany to Rome to be crowned Holy Roman Emperor by Pope Benedict XIII.

In 1022 Saint Henry assisted Pope Benedict VIII in holding the Council of Pavia, which promoted clerical celibacy and sought to end simony (the buying and selling of ecclesiastical goods and offices). During his reign, Saint Henry used his wealth and position for the Church. He confirmed Benedict's authority over Rome, was a patron of churches and monasteries, supported the Cluniac Reforms, restored episcopal sees, and founded the Diocese of Bamberg where he built a cathedral.

Saint Henry was married to Cunigunde of Luxembourg, to whom he was incredibly devoted. Although disputed by some historians, some stories of the couple's marriage report they took vows of chastity because their union was childless.

Saint Henry died in July of 1024 and was canonized in 1146 by Pope Eugene III.
