Immaculate Conception Parish

A Catholic Community Inviting People to Follow Christ

July 17, 2022 - Sixteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.

"Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ on behalf of his body, which is the church, of which I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God, the mystery hidden from ages and from generations past. But now it has been manifested to his holy ones."

- Colossians 1:24-26

Our Newly Ordained Deacons

Last Saturday, I had the pleasure to serve at our 5:00 P.M. Mass with three of our five newly ordained deacons for the Archdiocese. Deacons Dan, Kevin, and Michael also happen to be from the first class that I taught as a teacher at Mundelein Seminary, now five(!) years ago.

Not only is it a privilege to teach seminarians, but I have made it a special devotion of mine to support our seminarians. As a high school seminarian, only one of two being ordained of a class of sixty-four, it can be a lonely experience as close friends discern out. More than that, many seminarians go through seminary knowing they will work long hours, have little pay, little thanks, and a great deal of challenges. Our seminarians are truly heroes of our faith today – they are truly giving up much for the Kingdom of God, and joyfully.

Dan, Kevin, and Michael, along with Jesús and Francisco (both unable to be with us) have worked hard. I have always appreciated previous priests and parishes inviting me to be at Masses and to dinner as a sign of support. The support I received during that time was essential to my vocation and this is my way of giving back.

I am thrilled to one day call these five men brother priests and I know that their zeal, talents, and spirit will bless the Archdiocese and many souls. Thank you for allowing me to share that blessing with you all this past Saturday. One day, I hope to have them back as priests along with the next wave of deacons and priests not far behind. How cool would it be to have ten, eleven, or more clergy together praying Mass at IC?

Until then, pray that their formation continues to go well. May God bless our Church with good, well-intentioned, and holy servants.

42nd Annual Chicago Association Of Holy Name Societies Mass & Reception Wrap-Up

The Archdiocese of Chicago was well represented at the 42nd Annual Spiritual Assembly of the Chicago Association of Holy Name Societies (CAHNS) Mass hosted by IC on Friday, June 17th. Following six months of planning, (spearheaded by IC's Holy Name Society President, Ron Yak and Past President, Rob Lohman), our celebration flawlessly unfolded under the guidance of the Holy Spirit to help kick-off a busy Corpus Christi weekend.

Jim Semmler, Deacon Mike Bednarz, and members from our IC St. Joseph Table Ministry helped obtain Ads for the Program Booklet, as well as assist Mary Dosek – who did an amazing job coordinating efforts at our reception. Members from our Holy Name Society participated in the Mass and helped set-up and clean-up our Parish Center and members from our Alpha Team served as greeters/ushers at the Mass. This truly was an amazing show of parish pride at this Archdiocese event! Many thanks to all involved!

To open the festivities at 6:30 P.M., members from Holy Name Societies, Knights of Columbus and St. Peter Claver processed around our campus in traditional fashion with banners, with the Blessed Mother carried by Deacon James and his wife Jonalee Maslanka of the Blue Army of St. Peter and Paul Church of Chicago. Eight Deacons from our Archdiocese joined the procession as well, praying the Rosary for Pro-Life choices in the world.

Fr. Matt Heinrich celebrated Mass at 7:00 P.M., assisted by Fr. Nick Cavallari (Associate Pastor from St. Paul of the Cross). Deacon Rick Moritz served as Deacon of the Word, with Deacon Mike serving as Deacon of the Eucharist. Sacred music was provided by our talented professional musicians under the direction of Director of Worship, Scott Will and featured our Vocal Trio: Elizabeth, Julie & Ben accompanied by violinist John Eckhardt along with our Adult Handbell Choir (known as the Overtones) directed by Karol Grib.

Knights of Columbus (from the North American Martyrs Council #4338 at St. John Brebeuf Parish), and Knights of St. Peter Claver (from St. Sabina and St. Martin de Pores Parishes), provided the honor guard for the Blue Army during the procession and at Mass. Towards the end of the Mass, Fr. Matt installed the following CAHNS Executive Officers: Secretary - Thomas Nellis; Sergeant at Arms - Don Johnson; and Treasurer - James Koziel.

Congratulations to the 2022 CAHNS Mass Raffle winners (which were announced at the reception after Mass): 1st prize: $5,000 - Larry Kulik; 2nd prize: $1,500 - Dolores Mayado; 3rd prize: $1,000 - Maria Koziel; 4th prize: $1,000 - Troop #465; 5th prize: $500 - St. Constance Parish; Early Bird prize: $250 - Jim Lange.

To learn more or to become a member of IC's Holy Name Society (which meets every first Thursday of the month at 8:00 P.M. in the IC Bowling Alley), please contact Ron Yak at 773.580.4868 / rwv071981@aol.com. Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

“Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God’s unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis).” While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the “details” of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us! ©LPi

Saint of The Week - Examples of Our Faith: Saint Bridget of Sweden (July 23rd)

Saint Bridget or Birgitta was born in 1303, the daughter of Birger Petersson, governor of Uppland and his wife Ingeborg Bengtsdotter. She was married to Ulf Gudmarsson, who became governor of the province of Nericia. They had eight children, all of whom survived past infancy which was rare for the 12th century. One of their daughters would become St. Catherine of Sweden.

Saint Bridget was hailed as a mystic and her visions, which began in her early childhood when she had visions of Christ Crucified, made her somewhat of a Middle Ages celebrity. Her vision of the Nativity of Jesus even influenced the art of the Nativity through the Baroque era! She is said to have predicted the Vatican State. Saint Bridget's Revelations, which she dictated to Peter Olafsson, the prior at the Cistercian monastery of Alvastra near which she retired after her husband's death in 1344, were published in 1492. They have since been published in many languages and can still be purchased today.

Some of her most profound visions regarded the founding of a new religious order which would be primarily for women, ruled by an abbess, but with a separate house for monks who would serve as order chaplains. Her visions detailed everything from the abbey church to the clothing that would be adopted as the nun's habit, and how the order would be ruled. King Magnus II of Sweden granted Bridget land and buildings. The order, called the Bridgettines or the Order of the Most Holy Savior was approved by Pope Urban V in 1370.

Saint Bridget was canonized in 1391 by Pope Boniface IX and in 1999 Pope John Paul II named her one of the Patron Saints of Europe. ©LPi
