Farewell & God Bless: Snapshots From Fr. Robert Carlton's Farewell Weekend @ IC (June 25th & 26th)

Snapshots From Fr. Robert Carlton's Farewell Weekend @ IC

On June 25th & 26th, our IC parish family gathered together to bid a fond farewell to Fr. Robert Carlton as he celebrated our 5:00 P.M., 8:30 A.M. & 10:30 A.M. Masses during his final weekend as our Associate Pastor. Many thanks to all those who offered Fr. Robert their best wishes, bestowed gifts and cards, and expressed their heartfelt appreciation to him for his faithful service to our community over the past few years. He is genuinely grateful to all for their kind words, generosity, support and prayers as he departs IC for his new assignment in Oak Park. Special thanks to our Hospitality Team for graciously organizing and hosting our hospitality reception (offered after each of our Masses last weekend in Fr. Robert's honor.)

And The Scholarship Is Awarded To...

Our warmest congratulations to the six recipients of our $500.00 IC Catholic High School Scholarships for the 2022-2023 school year:

With grateful hearts, we thank our generous donors for kindly supporting the continuing Catholic Education of our IC Graduates!

Independence Day Mass @ 10:00 A.M.

Our Parish Office will be closed this Monday, July 4th in observance of Independence Day. All are welcome to join us in prayer at our Mass on this day which will be celebrated at 10:00 A.M. with Fr. Matt presiding.

Summer School Renovation Project

Our major summer renovation project involves the removal of the carpeting in our classrooms in the East portion of our school building in order to replace it with brand new flooring! We are able to do this thanks to the generosity of our donors that participated in our main fundraiser this past school year, the "Cowboy Boot Scootin' Boogie" (Boosterthon). Our teachers packed up their entire classrooms and movers transferred all the contents into designated storage areas within our school. After prepping the area over the course of four days, the asbestos abatement officially began on Friday, June 24th. The entire process of our new flooring project will occupy most of the summer.

Please join our parish family in prayer ...

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Freedom properly defined is freedom properly understood. The Cambridge Dictionary tells us that it is, “the condition or right of being able or allowed to do, say, think, etc., whatever you want to, without being controlled or limited.” That same dictionary defines liberty as, “the freedom to live, work, and travel as you want to.” Both definitions sound very similar. Is there a difference between freedom and liberty? Many are accustomed to believing that freedom and liberty are interchangeable and simply involve possessing rights and privileges. For the Christian, however, there is a big difference between the two.

St. John Chrysostom directs that “the only person who is free is the one who lives for Christ.” There are many other inspirational people throughout history who see freedom as something far greater than liberty. True and properly understood freedom has little to do with entitlement or self-promotion. For the believer, it is a matter of the heart and soul. Freedom (and liberty, for that matter), seen only in terms of the world, can quickly be taken away. The freedom spoken of by St. John Chrysostom can only be lost by personal choice. When one lives for Christ, they live in pursuit of virtues that enlighten one’s soul (faith, hope, and love) and strengthen one’s character (justice, fortitude, temperance, and prudence). Rather than having the ability to acquire or do more things, true freedom asks us to be detached. Privileges, rights, and responsibilities are important, but they do not define us.

The world is not always open to listening to the truth. “I am sending you like lambs among wolves,” Jesus tells his disciples. The secular definitions of freedom and liberty are very attractive. They promise us a great deal. It is no wonder Jesus asks his disciples to travel with very little. The Gospel is not dependent upon things or anything those with worldly power or investment can say or do. When one chooses to live for Christ, they choose to live with peace. That’s what true freedom will give us. If we do not want what Christ offers, we can close the door, and the messenger will walk away. Distracted by the lure of personal liberties, we risk losing our freedom. We will not have anything truly life-giving to share with others. ©LPi

Saint of The Week - Examples of Our Faith: Saint Elizabeth Of Portugal (July 5th)

St. Elizabeth was born to Peter III of Aragon and his queen Constantia in 1271. Like most royal girls of the time, she was betrothed at an early age, and was married to King Diniz (or Dinis, English: Denis) at the age of 12. Although her husband's infidelities and life of sin caused much scandal, Elizabeth was a good and pious queen. She attended Mass daily and dedicated her life to helping the poor. She established orphanages and shelters for the homeless. She also founded a convent of Poor Clares at Coimbra, Portugal.

Often called Peacemaker, Elizabeth was from her birth a reconciler of conflict. Her birth brought her father and his estranged father James to peace. Later, when her own son and husband came to war out of jealousy, she rode between armies and reconciled the two men.

After King Diniz died in 1325, she went to live as a lay member at the convent of Poor Clares that she had founded. But her fight for peace was not over as she undertook a long ride to keep the army of her son Alfonso IV from fighting that of Alfonso XI of Castile. Although she was successful, she died shortly after from a fever.

Saint Elizabeth was canonized on May 25th, 1625, by Pope Urban VIII. In the United States her memorial has been transferred to July 5th since July 4th is Independence Day, a national holiday. ©LPi
