Please join us as we gather to make sandwiches for The Port Ministries on Thursday, July 20th @ 6:00 P.M. in our Rectory Assembly. Please invite any others that might be interested in volunteering. We appreciate donations of lunch meat (ham, salami, or turkey) and sliced bread. Additionally, we will also accept donations of cases of water, bags of apples or oranges, as well as individual bags of chips.

Inspired by St. Francis and the Franciscan Charism, the Port Ministries mission is to provide the fundamental needs of the mind, body, and spirit. The organization addresses these needs through a series of programs and services that holistically work together to serve the under-resourced and under-served residents of the local communities (Back of the Yards, Englewood, Gage Park).

IC Parents Club Block Party/Annual Field Day: June 8th

IC Parents Club held their Annual Block Party/Field Day for our students. Our day began with a visit by Southpaw, the Chicago White Sox mascot, as well as Skates, the Chicago Wolves mascot. They held a dance-off which entertained all present! The Chicago Mounted Unit visited as well. Treats included hot dogs, cotton candy, and ice cream. Featured activities: inflatable amusement rides, tie-dye t-shirts, a DJ, a water balloon contest, tug of war, face painting and a dunk tank. Teachers taking the plunge this year (much to the delight of our students) included: Ms. Szvedo, Mr. Gallup, Ms. Barrett, Ms. Manzella, Mrs. Fritz, and Mr. Terranova. Many thanks to our Parents Club for hosting a fabulous end of school year celebration!

Pope Tweet of the Week...

"God looks with joy upon all those who serve the needy. This is how goodness grows: in the simplicity of hands and hearts stretched out to others and in the courage of the small steps that approach those who are most vulnerable in the name of Jesus."

IC Prays Together

We believe in the power of prayer and would like to offer this special ministry (formed by our Evangelization Team) for anyone in our community who wishes to be prayed for or to have someone to pray with.

Representatives from our prayer team are available at the quiet room in the back of our Church after all our Weekend Masses (5:00 P.M. on Saturdays, 8:30 A.M. & 10:30 A.M. on Sundays).

As a parish, we are striving to become a community that prays intentionally for one another, sharing both joys and struggles as one family.

Even if you do not need prayers at this time, please pray for our team and those who make use of them and ask God that our community grow stronger together through prayer.

Disciples In Mission Event: Drop-In Technology Café -July 10th @ St. Paul of the Cross

IC Class of 1963

We are exploring the possibility of getting the old gang together again in September 2023. Yes, it has been 60 years since we graduated from Immaculate Conception School. Out of a class of 122 students, we are hoping there are enough of us still around to participate in this get together. Quite a few of you were at the 35th reunion, and a great time was had by all. We realize many members of this class have moved from the area. However, we are asking that any family and friends still in the parish advise them of this reunion or possibly pass on their contact information.

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Do you ever feel restless? I certainly do. Daily tasks and challenges, but also the more basic demand of simply existing — sooner or later, this can all feel crushing and tire us out.

Which is why Jesus' words are such stunningly good news: "Come to me all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). How vastly weird that this man speaks as though he is capable of giving us the deep repose we desire. Is his claim the height of absurd grandiosity? No, because next he immediately proclaims that he is "meek and humble of heart." We here touch a mystery: Jesus is capable of giving us rest because he is the one who forever reposes in the heart of God the Father. He is "yoked" to the Father in his divinity. But he is humbly "yoked" to us, sharing in our humanity.

The good news, my fellow tired-out friends: we don't have to despair in our burdens and exhaustion, no matter how heavy they feel. This week, join me in opening our hearts to hear him say to us, "Come! I will give you rest." We come to him in the Church, Eucharist, the Scriptures, prayer, in the poor. There he will give us rest.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

(Practicing) Catholic: Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments...

A Ballad of Flesh and Spirit...

"My yoke is easy and my burden is light," says the man hanging from a cross. And if we only went on what we see with our eyes — flesh driven through by nails and sword, swollen from beating and inches from expiration — it would seem like a joke.

I'll tell you something we all know: this life on earth is hard. It's either too long or it's too short. It's frequently painful. It's riddled with problems that seem to make no sense. It is, as Dickens wrote, "made of ever so many partings welded together."

But it's also shockingly, senselessly beautiful. It is full of physical experiences of love, joy, and peace that are so powerful they leave you breathless.

It is both these things — good and bad, hard and wonderful, just as we are both body and soul, spirit and flesh.

No one knows the Father except the Son, who entered into our bodily existence to free us from enslavement to it. No one knows the Son except the Father, and the means by which they know one another — the love passing between them, the Third Person himself — has been shared with us, has made its dwelling within us through baptism.

"Brothers and sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh." — Romans 8:12
