Celebrating Family Mass With Our First Communicants: Pentecost Sunday, May 19th

We celebrated the conclusion of the Easter Season on Pentecost Sunday, May 19th by welcoming our First Communicants and their families to our final Family Mass of the 2023-2024 School Year. Our First Communicants served as Lectors during our Mass while our Choristers led our congregation in song (accompanied by our professional Vocal Quartet.)

Following his homily, Fr. Matt led our parish community in a special prayer to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit and later processed out with our Paschal (Easter) candle (accompanied by our First Communicants) at the conclusion of Mass, marking the official end of the season.

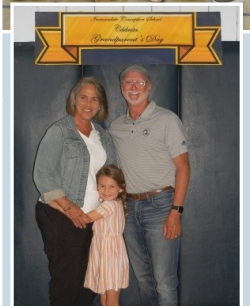

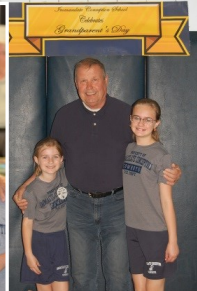

Our parish family gathered together after our celebration of Mass to enjoy a hospitality reception featuring varied treats in our Church Vestibule. Our monthly 10:30 A.M. Family Masses will resume in the Fall, once school is back in session.

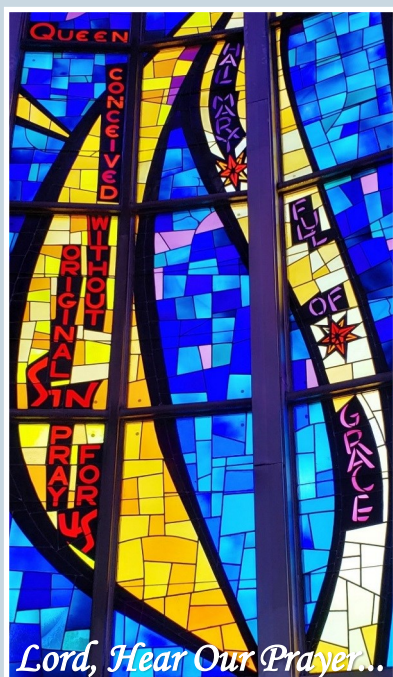

Celebrating Grandparents' Day @ IC

On Wednesday, May 22nd, Immaculate Conception School invited the grandparents of our students to visit their grandchildren during the school day. We welcomed hundreds of grandparents who visited our classrooms, enjoyed viewing our student's artistic creations adorning our school walls from our Art Show, visited our Book Fair, and posed for keepsake family photos together with their grandchildren.

Please join our parish family in prayer ...

Blessing of Fathers

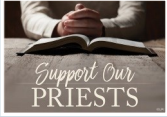

God and Father of all creation,
 we come before You today with humble hearts.
 You are our model of a loving father.
 When we fail and fall short of Your expectations,
 You are always there at the end of the day with open arms,
 ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.

Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children.
 Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures.
 Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance.
 We ask all this in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Consider Assisting Priests...

Priests have dedicated their lives to the ministry of God's children, serving our needs as Catholics without asking for anything in return. Now, it is our turn to show our love and care for their ever-faithful support. Please consider including a legacy gift for Priests' Health and Retirement to support the healthcare needs of our active priests, as well as the medical and housing needs of our retired priests. For more information, please call Priests' Health and Retirement at 708.449.8026. If you would like to make a gift today, please visit prmaa.org.

Gospel Differences

Question: Why do the Gospels differ in their details? I was surprised to learn that not all of the Gospels tell the same stories, for example, the Nativity. Doesn't this take away from their credibility?

Answer:

Take any event that happens, from family trips to national politics and ask two or three different people to explain what happened. You will get a different version of the same story. People tend to tell the story from their perspective, and past experience shades what we recall and how we recall it. Our choice of words and what details we leave in or out is also influenced by the audience who is listening to our tales.

The Gospel writers are no different. Each one tells the story of Jesus from their own perspective. Versions differ in some details, not because one is true and the other is not, but because each Gospel writer, or Evangelist, has a different theological point to communicate as well as a different audience for whom he is writing. He picks and chooses the details of his Gospel based on what message he is preaching, what his audience may already know, and what message they need to hear. The various details of the Gospels point more to their authenticity as a record of the church's experience and understanding of Jesus. In a good study Bible, the background notes for each Gospel contain a lot of information that helps us better understand each Evangelist and his message. ©LPi
