Blessing Of Fathers...

God and Father of all creation, we come before You today with humble hearts.
 You are our model of a loving Father.
 When we fail and fall short of Your expectations,
 You are always there at the end of the day with open arms,
 ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.
 We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.
 Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children.
 Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures.
 Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance.
 We ask all this in the name of Jesus.
 Amen.

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In the backyard of the house where I live with other priests, there is a lemon tree which produces a huge amount of fruit. One evening in the spring I needed some lemons for a chicken dish. I glanced from the kitchen and saw the tree bursting with large, bright, gorgeous lemons, hanging thick on seemingly every branch. Turning to Fr. Bob (I'll change his name to protect the innocent) who sat on the couch, I said, "Father, could you pick a few lemons for me?" He said sure and into the backyard he went. He returned a few minutes later empty-handed. "John, there's no lemons. Sorry." I said, "What are you talking about?" I looked again and saw the grapefruit tree on the other side of the yard, which had recently been picked clean of fruit. He didn't see the abundant fruit because he was looking in the wrong place!

Like Fr. Bob, we sadly don't see the fruit all around us. We think that the culture is spiraling down, young people avoid church, and the future looks bleak. Why go out into the world and work? The world looks like a fruitless tree.

Jesus doesn't see things that way. This week he tells us, "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few." Look again: there is spiritual fruit hanging all around us! The lonely ready to be visited. The sick ready to be healed. The forgotten ready to be remembered. The poor ready to be treated with dignity. The sad ready to be consoled. The young ready for the Gospel. So, let's ask the Lord to send laborers to get to work. And he will. He might send you and me. Just remember to look at the correct trees. – Father John Muir ©LPi

Attention: Immaculate Conception School Graduating Class of 1963

We are exploring the possibility of getting the old gang together again in September 2023. Yes, it has been 60 years since we graduated from Immaculate Conception School. Out of a class of 122 students, we are hoping there are enough of us still around to participate in this get together. Quite a few of you were at the 35th reunion, and a great time was had by all. We realize many members of this class have moved from the area. However, we are asking that any family and friends still in the parish advise them of this reunion or possibly pass on their contact information.

(Practicing) Catholic: Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments...

The Toy...

What does it mean to be God's "special possession"? Our world is dominated by things, objects, possessions. To say we are a materialistic culture is an understatement. In that context, it can be really hard to fully appreciate the meaning of being "possessed" by God. I have so many possessions, after all. I acquire and discard them without thought. I am even overwhelmed by them. Sometimes, it feels like they possess me.

But then I think of the week after Christmas in a house with small children. In that week, there is always The Toy. The Toy that won the heart of your child under the tree, The Toy to which they emotionally attached themselves in a whirlwind of twinkle lights and sugar cookies. For that one week, The Toy is all there is. There were many gifts, but The Toy is special, and there can only be one.

So, what does it mean to be "possessed" by God? What does it mean to be of His people? It means you will be cherished and protected in ways you do not deserve and cannot understand. It means you are distinguished not by your own merit, but by the love with which you are beheld.

It means that you are always The Toy, and every day is Christmas.

"Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people, though all the earth is mine." – Exodus 19:5
