Collection Benefiting The Port Ministries
 Next Sunday, July 2nd from 1:00-2:00 P.M. in the IC Church East Parking Lot.

Items needed are: oatmeal, dry cereals, boxed donuts, bottled water, fruit snacks, mac and cheese, and paper towels. Blue jogger pants for uniforms in any child size desperately needed.

Inspired by St. Francis and the Franciscan Charism, the Port Ministries mission is to provide the fundamental needs of the mind, body, and spirit. The organization addresses these needs through a series of programs and services that holistically work together to serve the under-resourced and under-served residents of the local communities (Back of the Yards, Englewood, Gage Park).

Sound Of Freedom

Please consider screening the movie Sound of Freedom. It is about Tim Ballard (played by Jim Caviezel) in the true life story of a Federal Agent who quit his job and devoted his life to rescuing children around the world from human trafficking. This movie is trying to raise awareness of this abominable practice. It will be shown at the Pickwick Theater in Park Ridge from Monday, July 3rd - Thursday, July 6th. It is also being shown at some area AMC theaters from Monday, July 3rd - Monday, July 10th. Please visit:

<https://www.angel.com/tickets/sound-of-freedom?zip=60631&date=2023-07-03>

for tickets, theaters, and showtimes. Please note: This movie is not for children. Thank you and God bless you! - Deacon Rick & Carol Volunteers needed...

If anyone would like to learn to crochet mats for the homeless, there is a group of ladies that meets once a month to crochet and make these mats. If you would like to join them to learn, you can go to Saint Elizabeth of the Trinity School (formerly St. Tarcissus.)

The next time they will be meeting is this Monday, June 26th at 7:00 P.M.

The school is located at 6040 W Ardmore. However, when you turn onto Ardmore from Milwaukee, drive past the church and school and go to Moody Avenue and turn right - it is a one way street. Go down a half block and look on the right where the wrought iron gates are to enter the school and it will be the first door on the left. You don't have to bring any supplies, but if you have a crochet hook that's 10 mm or larger, please bring it.

Thanks in advance! Any questions, please call or text Nancy Soprych @ 773.805.3254.

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was in middle school, there were times I didn't want my fellow students to see my parents drop me off or pick me up in the school parking lot. I was embarrassed of my parents. Why? I have no idea. Maybe it was our station wagon. Or I didn't want to look like a little kid. But in retrospect that was a silly thing to do. I was a kid. And I had two parents who loved me and had built a wonderful family. I was afraid of the other kids' judgment. How silly! I should have been afraid of forgetting or downplaying my family, which is where my identity had its deep roots.

This is a way to understand Jesus' words to his disciples this Sunday, when he says, "Don't be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna." Fear, in this sense, refers to where we find our deepest identity and our highest love. That's why Jesus says next that when we acknowledge him before others, he will acknowledge us before the Father. It doesn't mean we're brash or boastful. But rather we unhesitatingly and humbly embrace our identity as followers of Jesus and children of God the Father. After all, if we love who we are and where we come from, who cares what the other kids think about us? – Father John Muir ©LPi

(Practicing) Catholic: Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments...

The Necklace...

I have a necklace that originally belonged to my great-grandmother. I don't really know much about the man who gave it to her, most of those details have been lost to time. But I know that he wanted to marry her, and that she refused, and it had something to do with religion – ultimately, he did not share her faith. And while I've certainly seen many interfaith couples have loving and successful marriages, in this particular case, my great-grandmother discerned that this would not be one of those marriages.

Like I said, I don't have many details about this man, but I know that she felt she couldn't marry him because it might jeopardize the souls of her children, and therefore the souls of their children, and their children after them – me. She turned him down because of me.

My great-grandmother never sold that necklace, not even when the Great Depression further reduced her financial circumstances. She kept it, and she gave it to her daughter, who gave it to her daughter, who gave it to me. The necklace is always given with a warning: there is something worse than being poor, worse than being scared, worse even than being desperate. Worse than all of these things is separation from God.

When I wear this necklace, I think about my grandmother and this man she possibly loved a hundred years ago. I think of the many decisions we make every day – large and small, good and bad – that reverberate down through the generations in ways we cannot, at the time, imagine. I think of the God who knows every hair on my head.

“And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.” – Matthew 10:28
