A Busy Week @ School!

On Tuesday, May 23rd, Ms. Arreguin, IC Art teacher, displayed artwork created by our students throughout the school year during our Annual Spring Showcase, including: basket weaving, ceramics, clay sculptures, pottery, 2D & 3D artwork, glass sculptures, self portraits, glow in the dark art gallery and much more! We are so lucky to have Ms. A here at IC!

On Thursday, May 25th, we celebrated our student's grandparents by inviting them to join their grandchildren in school. We had over 400 grandparents attend! They toured their grandchildren's classrooms as well as our school. They also took advantage of a photo opportunity, enjoyed viewing all our creative student's artwork on display, and were treated to snacks and drinks in our Parish Center.

Mrs. Burke, our librarian, held our Spring Book Fair in Providence Hall this week as well. Students during the school day, as well as parents visiting during our Spring Showcase and grandparents attending Grandparent's Day, all enjoyed browsing and shopping for the latest books!

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In my experience, one of the peculiarities of being a man is the somewhat unlikely ability to look into the mirror, no matter how out of shape he may be, and declare with full confidence: "Looking good, buddy!" Ask a man. He'll probably confirm it.

Therein lies a mystery. You might think I refer to man's ability to deceive himself or his propensity toward vainglory. But in this case, I refer to the mystery of a healthy and proper sense of self-love. We human beings (both men and women) have the utterly weird ability to look at ourselves as if we were another. Then we tend to love this "other." Then, somehow, that love becomes a bond between the two. We are three and yet one.

This Sunday is Trinity Sunday. We ponder anew that God in His unity is a play of multiplicity: Lover, Beloved, and shared Love. Or, as we also proclaim, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. If we allow it, this mystery heals our temptation toward self-hatred and destruction. We all know how awful it is to look into the mirror and not know the person we see, or, equally bad, to know and hate who we see. Jesus, the Son of God, draws us into the dynamics of authentic self-knowledge and self-love. Perhaps we could ask the Holy Trinity this Sunday to teach us to truly look at ourselves and to properly love who we see looking back.

– Father John Muir ©LPi

(Practicing) Catholic: Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments...

We Bear The Name Of The Lord...

The name of the Lord is a curiously powerful thing. Say it deliberately, even in a group of people who are not particularly religious, and you'll know what I mean. There is a shift in the mood, a change in the atmosphere. When we utter the name of the Lord, He turns His head.

Once, in confession, I admitted to the sin of using the Lord's name in vain. "When you do that, tell God that you love him," advised the priest, who was wise enough to know that I would repeat this sin at some point. "You've said His name, after all. You have His attention."

We hear the name of the Lord, and we think of what it represents — John 3:16, salvation history summed up in a neat little sentence, the why and the how and the who of it all laid out before us. The Lord, so slow to anger that He offers us a million chances. The Lord, so rich in kindness and fidelity that He literally gave Himself to us that we might be saved.

But the name of the Lord is more than that. It is not just a symbol, it is an invitation. I think of Moses clutching the commandments, beseeching the Lord: "Come with us. Forgive us. Receive us as your own." The Lord accompanies us down the mountain. We bear the name of the Lord into the world with us wherever we go. I have to ask myself: do I do that name justice?

"Blessed is your holy and glorious name, praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages." — Daniel 3:52
