Highlighting Volunteers and Discipleship

Immaculate Conception could not exist as-is without the support of our community. Financially, our community has responded very positively to our efforts, supporting our livelihood. Money donated, however, does not simply stem from people having money. People support something that they see as an investment – in themselves, in others, in something that they believe in or are passionate about.

Money is not the only gift, though, as many at our parish have given their time, labor, connections, effort, and faith. With that in mind, I wanted to highlight various groups in our parish who give and encourage all parishioners to be generous in the way God allows them to be generous. While imperfect, I try to give what I have in my priesthood, sacramentally, and what I feel I am knowledgeable in, technology for example.

Holy Name Men's Club

Apart from their many fundraising efforts to support our school and parish every year, they have also helped us with behind-the-scenes projects, donations of time and effort, among other things. It is a testament to their leadership and investment in our community.

Parents Club

Our Parents Club has spearheaded many efforts with the school especially, particularly in support of our teachers and classrooms this past year. Many of their normal fundraisers were canceled due to COVID-19, but they found new and creative ways to generate interest and raise funds this past year.

Councils: Parish, Finance, School Board

These various Councils have allowed me to guide both our parish and school in very difficult times. They have worked with us to be fiscally responsible, make the best-informed decisions that we could possibly make, and be fair in our prioritizing – not favoring one side or the other, but doing our best to find what is best for all.

Alpha and Evangelization

These groups will be essential to the long-term health of our parish. They are at the core of our ability to reach out to new members as well as foster strong and healthy relationships among current members. Relationships, bonds, are at the heart of a growing faith. The nearly 15-man team (and growing) has taken great strides to improve our parish.

Reopening and Hospitality

Our Reopening team has been a part of many things – they are members of our Councils, Men's & Parents' Clubs, and Alpha & Evangelization teams. They have shown us, I think, how this parish has come together in a stronger bond. Their dedication has been heartening, and many of them have expressed interest in serving in other ministries: Lector, Extraordinary Ministers of Communion, greeting and hospitality.

Clergy and Staff

It is true that many of us on payroll are tasked with a job, but I can say as pastor that our deacons, staff, teachers, and administration likewise have done great work together. They have grown as a team and are vital to our success too. Their passion for our faith and our community is likewise admirable.

Please keep in your prayers these many groups – there are even others I don't have the space to express to you now – and even consider joining them (visit our website at www.icchicago.org or contact us by phone at 773.775.3833 to connect with the proper person). Discipleship involves generosity in the ways we can be generous. Let us help you grow as a disciple here at IC.

A Graduate's Prayer...

"Dear Lord, as I look toward the future bright hope conducts this prayer, for I know the plans You have for me were wrought with divine care. Holy Spirit, lead me. Let me run at Your command, yet be still and know that You are God when trouble is close at hand. Your Word will be a lamp for me, a guide to light my way, a solid place to set my feet, a compass when I stray. May I live my life to praise You, not for fortune, nor for fame, may everything I say and do bring glory to Your name. May my eyes stay fixed upon You as I seek the way that's pure, tasting Your love and goodness, sleeping and rising secure. Planted by Your living streams I'll delight in all Your ways, hidden by Your sheltering wings with new mercies for each day. Even in a dangerous land when storms threaten to destroy, at the cross I'll stand upon the Rock, my Strength, my Hope, my Joy. Dear Lord, show me Your favor, at all times keep me blessed, may Your face ever shine upon me, with peace and perfect rest." - Mary Fairchild

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

As our world faces so much turmoil and change, it is now more important than ever to remember who God is, who we are and where we are going. It is easy to get distracted and lose focus, especially when we are being pulled in so many directions. We can not only lose sight of God but one another. Maintaining our well developed and mature relationships with God and one another is essential to continuing to live, healthy, happy, and focused lives. In a message to young people, Pope Benedict XVI said, “the happiness you are seeking, the happiness you have a right to enjoy has a name and a face: it is Jesus of Nazareth, hidden in the Eucharist.” What is true for those who are younger is even truer for those who are older. Regardless of how the particulars of life change over time, human beings are still hard-wired to seek the fullness of life and happiness. How we embark on this journey and what we choose along the way will indicate whether we meet success.

There is so much brokenness and pain in our world. Many people are lost, feeling lonely, anxious, marginalized, victimized, isolated, oppressed, and abused. Every time we receive the Body of Christ, we have an opportunity to become what we eat. The power and presence of Christ in the Eucharist becomes present in us and effects change in ourselves and in the lives of those we meet. We are given the grace to become temples of justice and peace, carrying God’s sacred Presence within us wherever we go. Our faith community is ignited with the fire of God’s love and stands out as a beacon of hope in a world that is lost. This is the only way we can discover peace-filled resolutions to violence and create innovative solutions to what is fueling its need in the first place. True happiness, for the young and old alike, becomes an obtainable goal.

St. John Maria Vianney says it so well. “There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, he would have given it to us.” Only the Eucharist has the ability to connect, sustain, strengthen, and properly orient us, not only on the road of this life but the road to life eternal. Knowing this, when life gets challenging, unsettling, and difficult, we can rely on and cling to this gift we have in the Real Presence of Christ. This actual encounter with God celebrates God’s unconditional love for us and grounds us to the truth of who we are in a way nothing else is able to do. Because through the Eucharist we really do become the Body of Christ, we are also bonded together in a most perfect way to one another as that Body. Nourished, united, and strengthened by the Eucharist, let us individually and collectively, bring this wonderful gift to all we meet, especially the poor with whom we have a special connection. ©LPi

Everyday Stewardship - Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments

We Can Prepare the Upper Room...

We all know that person, don’t we? Hey, maybe we’ve even been that person. “I have a great relationship with God, but I don’t go to church regularly. God and I are on good terms. I can talk to Him just fine on my own.”

There isn’t anything false in these statements. It’s important to have an intimate, even conversational prayer relationship with God. But the problem with this attitude is that it implies that churches don’t matter. Community worship doesn’t matter. Today, we are reminded exactly why that is so untrue. Why we need our parishes, our priests, and each other.

The Body and Blood of Christ – that’s what it’s all about. If it’s not about that, it’s not about anything. If we don’t have the Eucharist, we’re just like the ancient priests, making sacrifices that don’t have the power to redeem anybody.

Where do we receive the Body and Blood of Christ? For most of us, it’s in our parishes. The altar of sacrifice is also the table we gather in front of, as a family, to become one with Christ in the truest and realest way possible, recreating the scene in the Upper Room over and over again every time Mass is celebrated.

The disciples were commissioned by Christ to prepare the Upper Room for the Last Supper. How can we take up that work ourselves? How can we strengthen the bonds in our spiritual family? How can we serve our parish, always remembering that the table is not meant to be set only for two? - Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi
