Dear I.C. Parish Community,

As I reflect on this first year of our I.C. Teen Club, I am overwhelmed with gratitude for the unwavering support, dedication, and enthusiasm so many of you have shown. It is with immense joy and appreciation that I extend my deepest thanks to those who helped make our inaugural year a resounding success, especially Father Matthew Heinrich.

From the inception of our teen club, it was clear that we were embarking on a journey filled with endless possibilities and opportunities for growth. With generous contributions of time, resources, and encouragement from our wonderful leaders, we were able to create a welcoming and nurturing environment where our young members could explore their faith, build meaningful relationships, and cultivate a deeper connection with God.

Throughout the year, we witnessed engaging discussions and impactful service projects, all while our young members embraced the teachings of Christ with open hearts and minds, inspiring us all with their passion and zeal for spreading love and compassion in our community.

None of this would have been possible without the tireless dedication and commitment of our volunteer leaders, who selflessly devoted their time and energy to guiding, supporting, and empowering our youth every step of the way. As such, I would like to thank them all personally here: Mary Dosek, Theresa Borowski, Jim Semmler, Kim Sampey, Joe Yau, Tyler Chmielowski, Kyle Chmielowski, and Darlene Mroz. Your unwavering commitment to serving as mentors and role models has made a profound difference in the lives of our young members, helping them to navigate life's challenges with faith, resilience, and grace.

As we look ahead to the future of our teen club, we are filled with hope and excitement for the journey that lies ahead. With your continued support and prayers, we are confident that we will build upon the strong foundation that we have established this past year and continue to inspire and empower our youth to live out their faith by loving God, serving others, and becoming disciples of Christ.

Once again, I extend my heartfelt thanks to each and every member of our parish community for your invaluable support and dedication to our youth ministry program. May God continue to bless and guide us as we strive to make a positive difference in the lives of our youth and our community.

With deepest gratitude and blessings,
- Stephanie Argamaso (IC Teen Club Coordinator)

God In Daily Life...

Question: How do I bring God into the work of my daily life?

Answer:

Whatever your daily work, you have an opportunity to encounter God and to follow His commandments in love. In the New Testament, we see that most of the Apostles didn't have a previous religious position. They were fishermen, tax collectors, and political activists. St. Paul was a tentmaker. Among the saints, we have doctors, lawyers, farmers, and stay-at-home moms. No matter your daily tasks, God can be present there!

One way concerns behavior. Start with an examination of conscience. Look at areas where you tend to struggle to imitate Christ at work. Do you gossip? Does brimming frustration become impatience at home? Pick one sin you struggle with, then choose a virtue to strengthen that area. If you tend to speak poorly of your co-workers, resolve to stop and to say one kind thing a day instead.

Another way relates to perspective, particularly your perspective of others. Jesus' incarnation reminds us of the value of every human being. Jesus is God, and each of us is created in God's image. When you encounter another person, you have an opportunity to see God in a new place and a new way — in that person in front of you. Genuinely listen to them and be present to their concerns. Loving your neighbor is loving God! Our relationship with God and the love He inspires in our hearts shouldn't remain only at church on Sunday. We can — and should — let our faith animate our lives! ©LPi
