Join us in prayer as we remember what our Lord endured for us and how we continue to carry the Cross of Christ today...

Lectio Divina means "divine reading" in Latin. It is a meditative technique of reading the Bible in which we let go of our own agendas and open ourselves (intellectually & emotionally) to what God is trying to communicate to us.

"We are invited during #Lent to stop for a moment. We should pause in prayer, in order to welcome the Word of God, and to pause like the Good Samaritan in the presence of a wounded brother or sister. Love of God and love of neighbour are a single love." - Pope Francis

Lectio Divina ("Divine Reading")

Did you ever wonder if God's word has meaning for our daily life? Do you sometimes wonder if the Gospel Readings are still relevant for today's society? If so, you are not alone!

Join us in prayer this Lenten Season as we host a Lectio Divina on Tuesday, March 12th @ 7:00 P.M. in the Rectory Conference Room. All are welcome!

Pope Tweet of the Week...

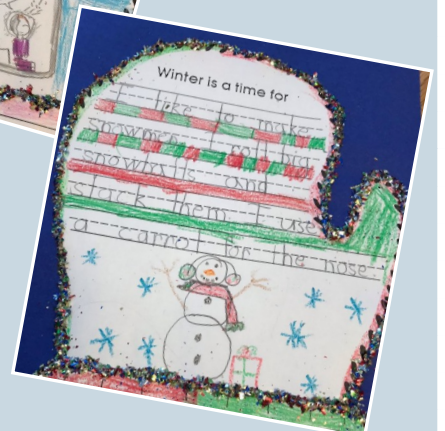

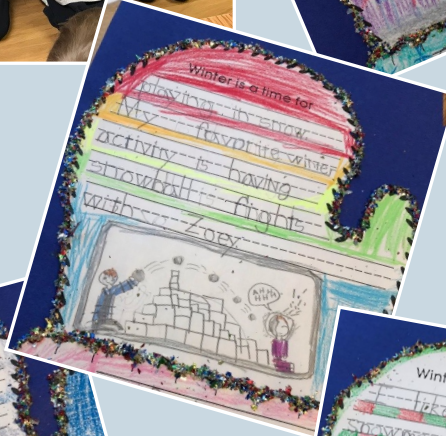

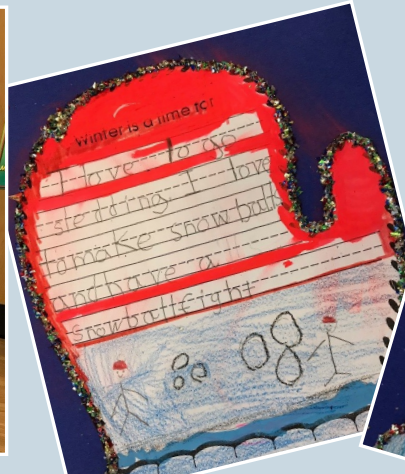

"Here is a good resolution for #Lent. Let us cultivate open outlooks and become "seekers of light," searching for the light of Jesus in prayer and other people."

Ms. Pawelek's First Grade Class

Our first grade students in Room 8 have been celebrating the winter season with a variety of activities. We have written about what we like to do in winter (some favorites included going ice skating, making snow angels, and having snowball fights with siblings). We have created snowflakes and are reading books with winter themes. Who says winter in Chicago isn't fun?...not our first graders!

Next Weekend: Bethlehem Arts @ All Masses

Next weekend, IC will host representatives of the Catholic Christian Community from Jerusalem and Bethlehem in the Holy Land who will be displaying handcrafted olive wood religious figurines and articles. Due to the political conflict and COVID 19 resulting in the reduction of tourism, the Catholic Community has come to depend more on the sale of these articles abroad to survive. The woodcarvings are beautiful and reflect faith and love for our Lord.

Please consider purchasing a gift that will be remembered and cherished for yourself or someone dear to you. The handcrafted olive wood religious figurines and articles will be available for purchase after all our Weekend Masses.
