Pentecost, Leadership & The Newly Ordained

At Pentecost, we celebrate the most special Solemnity of the Holy Spirit being given to the disciples, emboldening them to preach the Gospel and make disciples.

The Holy Spirit, in short, is the relationship of the Father and Son personified – perfect love. You might say that the Spirit is Relationship itself. So many mysterious phrases are said of the Spirit, such as He “discerns the deep things of God” and “can separate bone from marrow, and soul from spirit.” The Spirit is powerful and majestic, yet also subtle and silent.

It is this Relationship, this power, this subtlety, and this profundity that we are baptized into. It is this same Spirit that we are renewed in. It is this same Spirit by which we are equipped for the work of ministry and salvation.

This Spirit was given to the disciples of Christ, and thus we too are called to experience the power and freedom of the children of God. This past weekend, I had the great honor of attending our Archdiocese of Chicago Priesthood Ordination Mass at Holy Name Cathedral, where five men received Holy Orders. As my former students, I took great pride in their personal growth and thank God for being just a small portion of their formation. Looking at their parents, families, and friends who exuded pride, it was beautiful to see how vocations transform families and communities.

I also attended one of the newly ordained priest's first Masses. With twenty other priests concelebrating, ten deacons, and many seminarians, it was a precious moment to see a young man so full of zeal – in this instance, a fallen-away Catholic who connected with his Newman Center at University of Illinois, discerned priesthood, and fell in love with God's calling for him. The Mass was reverent, intimate, and filled with love of God and love of neighbor. I pray earnestly that our community can celebrate such Masses – not only regularly, but with a priest born on our own soil.

The only way to raise up leaders in our Church is to pray to the Holy Spirit, so He can renew the minds and hearts of the faithful. To that end, you will hear the witness of some of our parishioners at all our Masses this weekend. Some will speak of their growth within our community. Some through Alpha, others through service, and in other instances through building relationships with others.

Please pray for our leaders at our parish who I hope are inspiring some of you to become more engaged and involved in what we do at IC.

May God bless you as we conclude our Easter Season.

Pray for Daniel, Kevin, Francisco, Michael, and Jesus as they begin their ministry.

Blessed Pentecost,
- Fr. Matt

Prayer For The Newly Ordained...

Lord Jesus, You have chosen priests from among us and sent them out to proclaim Your word and act in Your name. For so great a gift to Your Church, we give You praise and thanksgiving. We ask You to fill them with the fire of Your love, that their ministry may reveal Your presence in the Church. Since they are earthen vessels, we pray that Your power shines out through their weakness. In their afflictions let them never be crushed, in their doubts never despair, in temptation never be destroyed, and in persecution never abandoned.

Inspire them through prayer to live each day the mystery of Your dying and rising. Through the gifts of the Holy Spirit, put Your word on their lips and Your love in their hearts, to bring good news to the poor and healing to the brokenhearted. And may the gift of Mary, Your Mother, once given to Your disciples, be Your gift to every priest. Grant that she who formed You in her human image, may form them in Your divine image, by the power of Your Spirit, to the glory of God the Father, Amen.

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I hope you'll acknowledge with me a simple fact: it's not normal to have tongues of fire "part and come to rest" on people. It is actually pretty strange. Yet that is precisely what we celebrate in this feast of Pentecost. How can this mean something to us in our daily lives?

Jews had a tradition that heaven is a temple made of bricks of fire. So, through the apostles, the heavenly temple is coming to earth. But this fire looks like tongues, not bricks. That means that heavenly speech will be crucial to building a dwelling place for God on earth among men and women. So, it's no surprise when the apostles begin to speak in a miraculous way that is understood by all language groups. They are speaking of what God has done in and through Jesus: bringing heaven to earth and uniting all peoples to God and to each other.

How often our speech divides: gossip, slander, insults, and so on. How strange and rare it is when people speak in ways that truly unite instead of divide. Imagine how powerful it would be if you and I began to speak at home, at work, and in our community in a way that made people hear heavenly speech. Imagine if you spoke of the mighty deeds of God in a way that everyone could understand. That's precisely what the Holy Spirit descends upon us to do. Ask Him to come as a tongue of fire to you once again, and He will. Then speak!

(Practicing) Catholic: Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments...

The Flame Communicated...

"Fire! Fire! They're all gonna die! They're all gonna burn up!"

I had absolutely no hope of restoring order as I read the story of Pentecost with my young children last year. As soon as they glimpsed the tongues of fire hovering over the foreheads of the apostles, they were lost to giggles and shrieks. I sighed, sipped my coffee, and wondered resentfully why the Holy Spirit couldn't have chosen to be a dove on that particular day. Just a nice, peaceful dove.

I'll say this, though: the fire left an impression. It usually does, doesn't it? Fire consumes. It renews. It illuminates. It leaves you breathless with fear and awe. The memory and scent and impact of a flame lingers long after it is extinguished.

When I am trying to explain theology to my kids, I have an awful habit of overcomplicating things. I'd had a whole speech prepared for them about what the Holy Spirit is, but it went out the window as soon as they saw the flames. And you know what? It's probably for the best. They wouldn't have remembered that speech. The flames, though? The flames they remembered. The flame communicated.

As a result of Pentecost, the apostles suddenly had the ability to give the truth to foreigners. Aliens. People who were heretofore beyond their reach, isolated by language. The flame communicated.

God's sense of timing is impeccable, and His delivery is carefully crafted. And on Pentecost, the Holy Spirit did not descend as a dove or pour forth as water. On Pentecost, the Holy Spirit burned.

"Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth." – Psalm 104
