Our Seminarian's Final Weekend & Fruitful Harvest Series Recap

As we come to the close of another school year, I want to thank our seminarians, Deacon Joseph, Joseph, Colin, and Jacob for all of their work this past year. Deacon Joseph will be ordained to the Priesthood at the end of this month and will return to his home Diocese of San Jose, California. Jacob, who was on his internship for the better part of this year, has decided to step away from Seminary formation and Colin has also decided to step away for a time from formation. Having had the opportunity to teach both young men, I appreciate their discernment and work with us. May we wish them all the best as they discern their next steps on their journey. Joseph, our seminarian from the Diocese of Wichita, Kansas, will return next year.

It is always a gift to collaborate with seminarians at a parish. They each shared with me that they found both our Seminarian Support team (Mary Dosek, Patty Rios, Donna McGrath, and Ed Niewinski) and our parish to be supportive and loving. So, thank you to everyone.

As we concluded our third and final reflection from our series "Fruitful Harvest," there is a lot of good to take away from our experience. First, the brief roundtable reflection was an enjoyable way to cover a lot of ground from a variety of perspectives. Secondly, featuring small group discussions is a great way for participants to actively engage with the content and with their fellow parishioners. One plan currently under consideration for the future is to host three sessions in the Fall and three in the Spring, but to now also include parishioners as a part of the panel with our seminarians.

As for our final session, entitled "The Gift of Prayer," each of our seminarians reflected on prayer from the following angles:

Colin – reflected on how good friendships, ones where we can be vulnerable and honest, can be the basis of more fruitful prayer. Being open to people we trust helps us to reflect on how God works in our lives.

Joseph – reflected on how as we grow older and invest in our relationship with God, the old can be new again. We can carry with us certain prayers and texts from Scripture which gain new significance as we continue to evolve and open ourselves up to God.

Deacon Joseph – reflected on how he will soon lead others in prayer as a priest. He looked back on the example of parents, neighbors, and community who instilled in him a sense of belonging. This sense of community also fuels his passion to lead and teach communities in prayer.

Thank you again to our seminarians, our Seminarian Support team, our Hospitality team, and everyone who has been a part of our seminarian's formation journey thus far. Please look forward to our future offerings! - Fr. Matt

Reflections From Fr. Robert Carlton: Catholic Conversion Stories

One of the first readings from daily Mass recently recounts the famous story from the ninth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles of the Conversion of Saul, who had been “breathing murderous threats against the disciples of the Lord,” to become Paul, “who began at once to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues that he is the Son of God.” Paul’s conversion happened almost immediately and was seemingly a one-way street, as he was knocked off his horse by “a light from the sky that suddenly flashed around him” on his way to Damascus to arrest and bring back to Jerusalem any Christians that he may have found. After being knocked off his horse, Paul got up and was unable to see anything and was led by the hand to Damascus, where “for three days he was unable to see, and he neither ate nor drank.”

One of the problems with this story is that it can give people the idea that real conversions can happen almost immediately, and people can wait for their “road to Damascus” moment and miss the things that are happening around them. There are, to be sure, some instances in Christian history that approximate Saul’s conversion on the road to Damascus. One of the most well-known ones is the apparition of Mary to the peasant Juan Diego in modern day Mexico City in 1531. This apparition led directly or indirectly to the conversion of all of Mexico in the ten years subsequent to it - nine million people converted to Christianity in that period, which means that three thousand people a day converted every day for ten years. One could make the argument that this apparition is the single most important event in the development of the history of Latin America, given the continued commitment of that part of the world to Catholicism. However, conversions are generally much longer and more involved processes and they tend to take a good amount of time and require work and initiative on both sides.

One of the more dramatic examples of this is the story of the conversion of Herbert Kappler, who served as the head of the SS in Rome towards the end of World War II. Kappler’s efforts to arrest Allied fugitives in Rome during the war were routinely foiled by the work of Monsignor Hugh O’Flaherty, who was an Irish priest that worked in the Vatican, work that led Kappler to target O’Flaherty for kidnapping and assassination. O’Flaherty continued throughout the rest of the war to try and save Allied fugitives from arrest by the Germans, eventually saving the lives of an estimated 6500 soldiers (although he is obviously not able to save everyone, and a number of those soldiers became victims of Kappler and his SS.) After the war, O’Flaherty receives honors from many Allied governments and Kappler is arrested and sentenced to spend the rest of his life in an Italian prison. However, curiously, O’Flaherty regularly visited Kappler during his imprisonment and eventually became Kappler’s only visitor. By 1959, fourteen years after his arrest, Kappler was received into the Catholic Church by Monsignor O’Flaherty. So, in light of the conversion of St. Paul, let us make sure to remember that while some conversions happen in a similar way, most conversions happen like Kappler’s: a two-way street that requires a long journey and sincere accompaniment.

Flowers For Life

“Flowers appear on the earth; the season of singing has come . . .”
Song of Songs 2:12

This Mother’s Day weekend, May 7th & 8th, IC’s Pro-Life group will be selling floral bouquets at all Masses, in gratitude for the precious gifts of life and love provided by our mothers.

Proceeds benefit The Women’s Centers of Greater Chicagoland (www.gotwc.org.) For more than 35 years, this organization has been dedicated to saving lives threatened by abortion. The Women’s Centers offer a variety of free counseling, referrals, and material assistance to support a life-affirming decision to women and men facing a crisis pregnancy.

Small arrangements of assorted flowers will be available for $10.00 or $12.00 each. (Payments accepted in cash or via checks made payable to: “The Women’s Centers”.)

Please continue to pray that our world respects the sanctity of all human life – from the moment of conception to the moment of natural death.

Ms. Grammas' Kindergarten Class

Our Kindergarten students in Room 24 are always excited about learning. We have a few more weeks of school remaining to show others that we are prepared to enter First Grade as we will graduate on June 8th! Our focus for the remainder of this School Year will be on “hands-on” Math, Reading, and Science activities as well as on continuing our celebration of the Easter Season.

Our class knows that Easter isn't just one day, it is a season in the Church for us to celebrate. Before Easter, we learned about the events of Jesus' life during Holy Week. Now we are in the Easter Season and we continue to show our love for Jesus. In the coming weeks, we will learn about The Ascension of our Lord and Pentecost Sunday.

To keep us actively involved in our learning, our Science lessons have focused around using experiments and STEM activities. We have conducted several experiments using PEEPS such as: Will a PEEP float or sink? What will happen if we put a blue and yellow PEEP in soda water? Our STEM activities also challenged our class to build the tallest tower with 15 cups and 20 large popsicle sticks. We will construct bridges as well! In other STEM activities, we will be building with toothpicks and marshmallows. Creating balancing robots and colorful spinners were other fun activities that we have enjoyed during this School Year!

Pray For Vocations...

Lord Jesus, we beg You for good and holy priests. In every age, You call men to follow You as servants and shepherds of Your people. Open their hearts to Your call and give them the courage to follow You. Be their rock of refuge and their light as they discern. Help us to support them on their journey, and to love them as Your disciples. We thank You for all that You are and for all that You do. In Your name, we pray. Amen.

Second Collection: Catholic Charities Annual Mother's Day Appeal - May 7th & 8th

Mothers support us through every season of our lives. Please support them through every season of theirs. This weekend, our second collection will help Catholic Charities provide support and resources for thousands of mothers across the region who continue to face extraordinary challenges.

Please offer your most generous donation to the Catholic Charities Mother's Day Collection to assist local mothers in need across Lake & Cook Counties. Your support provides a full range of services to mothers throughout the entire cycle of life (from pregnancy through parenting and beyond) – including food, counseling, shelter, and other vital resources. Prayer To The Mother Of Our Lord For All Mothers

IC Supports Life

Mary, on this day when we honor all mothers, we turn to you. We thank the Lord whom you serve for the great gift of motherhood. Never has it been known that anyone who sought your intercession was left unaided by grace. Dear Mother, thank you for your "Yes" to the invitation of the angel which brought heaven to earth and changed human history. You opened yourself to God's word and the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us.

Dear Mother, intercede for all of our mothers. Ask your Divine Son to give them the grace of surrendered love so that they could join with you in giving their own "Fiat." May they find daily strength to say yes to the call of sacrificial love- the very heart of the vocation of motherhood. May their love and witness be a source of great inspiration for all of us called to follow your Son.

On this Mother's day, Mother of the Word Incarnate, pray for us who have recourse to you... In the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Last Fall, our parish and school participated in The Baby Bottle Project sponsored by The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland. Through the collection of spare change, our IC community contributed $10,374 to the Pro-Life cause. The students and families of our school provided more than 60% of the total, which is encouraging for the future Pro-Life generation. The workers at The Women's Centers are so grateful for our support!

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

“Human beings, while capable of the worst, are also capable of rising above themselves, choosing again what is good, and making a new start.” (Pope Francis)
 We have a difficult time figuring out what is true and best for us. There are many voices talking and so many trying to get our attention. We wrongly convince ourselves that the true voice is the voice of progress, the one that speaks of contemporary wants and desires, enticing us with the latest trends and causes. We are taught, by listening to the voices around us, that truth is found in feelings and thought, and ideals must match current and popular human wants. Because we feel a particular way it must be true. Then, we find a shepherd who empathizes with us and affirms us. We follow that voice even though listening to that voice will render us powerless and lead us to harm. There are many with me in this procession to this pasture. I must be on the right path and listening to the right voice.

We are very confused. What can keep us safe and from harm? Where do we go to find life, love, and happiness? Jesus tells us that he is the way, the truth, and the life. The only way to get to Truth, who is God, is through him. There is no other way. The Church, the gate around God’s pasture of life, is charged with the mission of directing us where God desires that we go. In the midst of all of the conflicting voices around us, the voice of truth is often muffled in all of the noise, but it beckons us to a life of virtue and grace. Helping us understand who we are and where we have to be, it discerns the voice of God, providing us with the safety net we need to stay straight on our path to life eternal.

We have to trust the voice of God, the true Shepherd, even when it does not mirror what we want and what others may believe. Faith goes way beyond feeling and involves a radical trust in Someone who can lead us and form us. At day’s end, if we do not know to find our way home, we will be truly lost. ©LPi
