All Saints Day

Certainly, Christmas and Easter receive much attention during our year. For now, at least, it holds a prominent place in our culture. One might say that culturally, Halloween holds great significance to us, even though the significance is in no way spiritual. One has only to look at Twitter, Facebook, YouTube, and other social media outlets to see the great volume of videos and posts devoted to the subject. Content about horror movie franchises, costumes, and scary games are posted to your heart's content. I have no problem with this phenomenon. Culture is not something we can easily control, and, at this time and place, Halloween happens to be popular now.

I believe that it is lost on our faith that the greatest feast days are perhaps in this order: Easter, Ascension, Christmas, Pentecost, All Saints Day

Easter celebrates the Resurrection, our victory in and through Christ over sin and death.

The Ascension promises us a share in the life of God and an eternal mediator in Christ

Christmas is the feast where we celebrate God's mercy and justice; Christ shares our life intimately to transform it.

Pentecost is where the Spirit is shared with us, allowing us to live a life of God.

All Saints Day is a sort of acknowledgment of all of these realities in the faithful of the Church. The day we acknowledge that the Church, the Body of Christ, is called to carry on the mission of Christ.

It is essential that we as a Church see our faith as a mission, and not merely as our identity. My experience as a Catholic is that the name "St. Andrew" is not much different from saying "1st United Catholic Congregation", insofar as I would be hard-pressed for people to tell me who St. Andrew is and why he's significant. Even for us here, what is the Immaculate Conception and why is it genuinely significant for our faith?

Saints are people who love heroically and embody the mission of the Church: the salvation of souls through sacrament, prayer, love, forgiveness, mercy, and generosity.

As an experiment, how much can you say about the following:

Gale Sayers vs. St. Augustine

Eddie Van Halen vs. St. Theresa of Avila

Chris Pratt vs. St. Bonaventure

How many words could you use to describe the impact and significance culturally, of one or the other? This experiment alone should prove my point.

Knowing sports, music, and culture is no sin. Conversations about them can be enjoyable and a bonding experience. Many people likewise have been inspired to great things by cultural icons. All I ask is that we look to our saints for inspiration as well. Their lives are examples of great love, oftentimes through tragedy and struggle. They are like us in every way and their call was no different from ours. I hope that this November 1st, you are able to celebrate this feast day. Honor a saint important to your family and heritage. Learn their story. The hope is that, once inspired by them, you too will become a saint.

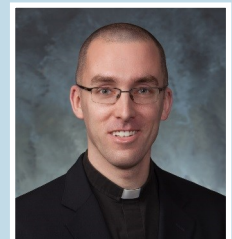

Fr. Matt

IC Scholarship Fund Opportunity...

In response to the economic challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic and to encourage students from IC to attend Catholic high schools, Immaculate Conception Parish would like to start a scholarship fund for graduates of Immaculate Conception School and our Religious Education Program to use for tuition at Catholic high schools. We recognize the value and importance of a Catholic high school education and we hope that this could potentially make a difference in the ability of our graduates to continue their Catholic education. All graduates from Immaculate Conception School or our Religious Education Program who either will attend a Catholic high school next year or are currently enrolled at Catholic high schools would be eligible to apply. Application materials and directions will be posted on our parish website after January 1, 2021. While the amount and number of the scholarships available will depend upon the amount of money raised, it is hoped that they would be a minimum of $500. Also, while it is hoped that the scholarships could be renewed, funding initially is only guaranteed for one year.

Traditionally, the Chicago Marathon has been used as a way to raise money for causes such as this. However, since there is no Chicago Marathon this year, Fr. Robert Carlton will run a half marathon in the Norwood Park Circle this Sunday, November 1st to kick off the fundraising part of our efforts. Please contact Fr. Robert at 773.775.3833 Ext. 102 or via email at rcarlton@archchicago.org with any additional questions.

Crossing Guard of the Year...

Congratulations to our crossing guard at Oconto and Talcott, Pat Oliva, who won the Crossing Guard of the Year Award today! Out of the 800 crossing guards in the city of Chicago, Pat was selected as the winner! To commemorate the occasion, there was a small ceremony in our East Lot with her family present as she was awarded her plaque. Some of our students presented her with balloons, posters and cards. Mrs. Oliva has been a crossing guard for 38 years. Thanks to our families who nominated her. —Sue Canzoneri

Ms. A is on the move...

IC School Art teacher, Ms. A (Mrs. Lisa Arreguin), has done a fantastic job keeping our students engaged in creating their art projects, just as she has done in past years. This year has presented many challenges, such as not being able to use her art classroom. In lieu of that, Ms. A has four traveling art carts that she utilizes for the different age groups as well as for the different levels in our school. As you can see in the accompanying photograph, she doesn't travel light!

First Responders Mass...

On Saturday, October 24th, IC welcomed our special guest presider Fr. Dan Brandt, Chicago Police Department Chaplain, as we gathered together as a parish family with grateful hearts to honor and celebrate our First Responders at our 5:00 P.M. Mass. All First Responders present (Police, Fire, Military, and Emergency Medical personnel) received a special blessing bestowed upon them by Fr. Dan. Our heartfelt thanks to Fr. Dan and to the Bagpipes & Drums of the Emerald Society (CPD Band) for their gracious participation in our celebration!

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I remember as a child the meticulousness my father would bring to a task. Whether it be tending to a chore in the yard, repairing something, or painting a room, the tiniest of every detail demanded his attention. He had great patience. I benefited greatly by his example and remember these lessons well. We all need examples to follow. It is important to identify folks who excel at simple things and show us how to do things well. There are those among us and those who have gone before us who serve as these models and witnesses. They are ordinary people who in their “extraordinary ordinariness” capture our attention and allow us to see things more clearly.

These are the prophets, martyrs, teachers, witnesses, heralds, and innovators who bring a single-minded devotion to God to even the simplest of tasks they perform. They have an openness to being used and become vessels of Divine justice, mercy, and presence. They call us to the “more” of life and point us to the Gospel in all of its simplicity and splendor. They remind us of the little ones of the Kingdom and the values we all need to cultivate and possess. They are the poor in spirit, the meek, the merciful, and the peacemaker who often are rejected not only by those who have far different agendas but by those you think would welcome them.

All of the saints in heaven and on earth form this cloud of witnesses who journey with us as we make our way through life. They offer us inspiration, wisdom, intercession, and support. They direct us toward true happiness and remind us that we are all called to be saints. All it takes is desire, love, and fidelity. There is much we can learn from the official saints of the church. Their guidance is ever before us and ever with us. But there is also a lot to learn from the unofficial saints of the church. They sit beside us every Sunday, are our neighbors and ordinary people we meet every day. Because of the devotedness of their faith, they remind us to keep going, remain focused, and cultivate purpose and meaning, and give voice to those who have none. The inspiration is all around us.

Pay attention to the details. Do what you do with great love. Know that you are not alone. Believe that you can persevere. Have great faith.

Everyday Stewardship – Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments

Everyday Saints...

Growing up I thought saints were larger than life people with extraordinary stories. The thought that I could one day be revered as a saint by anyone seemed crazy. I wrote my essays on different saints every year in Catholic school right around All Saints Day. These were stories about people I had never met, and I assumed I would never meet anyone like them going forward.

Now that I am older, I realize that I was wrong back then and my immaturity of both mind and heart did not allow me to see that there are saints among us all the time. I have met many people in my life that I would call living saints. They are holy people who give of themselves to God and others in profound ways. Their relationship with Jesus is evident and they live their lives in ways that people witness the transformative power of love.

As a child I was wrong about saints, but even more importantly, I didn’t fully realize that all of us are called to be saints! Me, a saint? Holiness is not something simply studied in books. It is the way of life we are all called to live. The call comes from Jesus Christ and each of us must respond. If we are still thinking like children, we may choose to stay silent and live accordingly. If we are more mature in our faith then we might not only respond, we might one day have a school child write a report about us.
