IC Teen Club Update

In our October meeting, I spoke with the kids about serving others without the expectation of something in return. I asked them to consider what that means to them, and how it's important to always remain humble in the world, especially when acting as a servant to the Lord and others in our lives. The accompanying passages we read were Matthew 20:25-28 & Matthew 23:11-12, which stated: "The greatest one among you will live as the one who is called to serve others because the greatest honor and authority is reserved for the one with the heart of a servant. For even the Son of Man did not come expecting to be served by everyone, but to serve everyone, and to give his life in exchange for the salvation of many. The greatest among you must be a servant. But those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted." The passages are powerful, and tie well into the theme of making sure to be thankful always for the opportunity to serve others as Jesus did.

Accordingly, the IC Teen Club gathered on Saturday, November 11th to make holiday cards for active service members. It seemed fitting to both share some early holiday cheer and thanks for the men and women serving in our armed forces. As usual, the kids were fantastic with their artwork and their notes, and I am humbled myself to be allowed to serve them as well. - Stephanie Argamaso (IC Teen Club Coordinator)

Room 22 Apple Taste Testing With Mrs. Rog

Kindergarten Room 22 has been learning all about apples in our Apple Unit. We had an apple taste testing experiment in our classroom. We tasted red, yellow, and green apples. Then we decided which was our favorite by taste. After that, we graphed our favorite on a bar graph on our smart board. Finally, we copied the data on our own bar graphs. We had a lot of fun tasting and graphing apples!

IC HNS 11th Annual "Dancin' With My Daddy" Father/ Daughter Dance: October 21st

Our Fall 2023 11th Annual IC Daddy Daughter Dance, hosted by the ICHNS (Men's Club) on Saturday, October 21st, was a huge success as we welcomed a record 431 attendees, with a sizable crew working the event! Much fun was enjoyed by all! Thank you to all the Dads and Daughters who attended and made this such a successful event. Thank you to the DDD Committee (Kyle Liebich, Kevin Walsh, Jim Breen & Chris Tronco), without whom this could not have happened. And thank you to our larger DDD Night Crew, who made this all come together and run smoothly behind the scenes! Thanks to all of the Moms who baked and donated desserts. And finally, thanks to our Head of Maintenance, Mike LaHaye, for his work before and after the event. And good luck, and God bless, to the next crew who runs this event. After 12 years of helping to run it myself, since the very first dance in Fall 2012, it's been a blast! - Rob Lohman

*Why Do We Do That? Catholic Life Explained: Patron SaintsQuestion:

Why are some saints honored as "patron saints"?

Answer:

Each person is unique and each of us has different gifts, interests, talents, and, yes, even struggles and areas where we need to grow. This is no less true of those holy women, men, and children who have been canonized or beatified. Because we believe that the saints and blessed are both models of faith and intercessors, Christians have looked to certain holy people as role models and heavenly protectors for occupations, spiritual charisms, and even places. Although the Church sometimes names a person as a patron saint (e.g. Saint Philip Neri as the patron of Rome, Saint Clare of Assisi as the patroness of television, or Saint Aloysius Gonzaga as the patron of youth and young adults), more often it is popular devotion that inspires lay Christians to turn to a particular saint or blessed for heavenly help and support. This is how, for example, Saint Cecilia came to be honored as the patroness of musicians, Saint Toribio Romo as patron of migrants coming into the United States, and Saint Gertrude of Nivelles as patroness of cat lovers. Although there are official and unofficial lists of patron saints, we should always feel free to ask any and all the saints to give us their patronage and protection in whatever it is that we need. ©LPi

IC Prays Together

We believe in the power of prayer and would like to offer this special ministry (formed by our Evangelization Team) for anyone in our community who wishes to be prayed for or to have someone to pray with.

Representatives from our prayer team are available at the quiet room in the back of our Church after all our Weekend Masses (5:00 P.M. on Saturdays, 8:30 A.M. & 10:30 A.M. on Sundays).

As a parish, we are striving to become a community that prays intentionally for one another, sharing both joys and struggles as one family.

Even if you do not need prayers at this time, please pray for our team and those who make use of them and ask God that our community grow stronger together through prayer.

*(Practicing) Catholic: Recognize God In Your Ordinary MomentsThe King Comes Holding a Mirror...

Of all the many wonderful, thorough examinations of conscience I have come across, the one I normally utilize is very simple, and perfectly suited to someone like me who is not capable of profound thought at the end of the day.

It's just one very short question: Which Christs did I not recognize today?

The King always comes in disguise, and I know I miss him in so many ways every single day. I miss him in people ignored or dismissed. I miss him in opportunities avoided and in moments that could have turned into prayer but instead turned into phone-scrolling. I miss him when he is right in front of me, holding up a mirror and calling my name, begging for my conversion of heart.

The Christian life calls us to constant self-scrutiny. It's not a comfortable life, always thinking about what you could do better, but the Lord shepherds us rightly. His pastures have nothing to offer those who are perfect and strong.

He has gone in search of the lost. He has reclaimed those who have strayed, healed those who were injured, given rest to those who were weary.

We can't be followers of Christ if we are not willing to own our sins. God's mercy does not dismiss our sins, as if they never existed and were not important.

No, it does something far, far better — God's mercy absolves our sins. It sets us free from them. But to be truly free, you have to understand the tyranny of what once enslaved you.

"And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats." — Matthew 25:32
