A Catholic Community Inviting People to Follow Christ

November 6, 2022 - Thirty-Second Sunday In Ordinary Time

Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

"May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word."

Evangelization (Alpha) Update...

Dear brothers and sisters,

As we rapidly approach the half point of our fall Alpha Session, I just want to take a minute and thank you for your continued prayers and support. Alpha @ IC is hosting 19 guests this session and it has been an amazing experience thus far. I am truly blessed and humbled by the new friendships that take root during our time together during Alpha.

This weekend, November 5th, is our Alpha Retreat, and the Retreat focuses specifically on the person of the Holy Spirit. It is a key component of the Alpha experience, and the Holy Spirit has made His presence known in many ways, many times, through many people. My team and I, personally, have been blessed many times over because of it. Please continue to pray for our guests and for our Alpha Team.

Over the last few weeks, you have heard a lot about Discernment (the who, what and why). As Immaculate Conception endeavors to raise up leaders within our Parish, our encounter with the Holy Spirit is the catalyst for doing so. Upon meeting Christ, through His Spirit, we are motivated by His love for us. And once we recognize who we are in Christ, it is only natural for us to want to share the Good News of Christ and strive to advance His Kingdom so that others may share in God's Love as well. As believers in Christ, I am fully convinced that we receive two gifts when we have accepted Christ as our Savior. The first gift is the Gift of Salvation. The second gift is the Gift of the Holy Spirit. And it is this second Gift which we put to use for His Glory. This is where Discernment comes into play, for we first must understand the Gift that we have been given, and then we need to be strategic about where the Gift of the Spirit (utilized by the individual) is best suited to build up IC and the Church overall. As new leaders are being raised, the Gifts of the Spirit are put into action, thereby transforming/renewing IC.

If what I have written has inspired you, invite a friend to our next Alpha Session (registration opens again in January 2023), and join them in the experience. You will not be disappointed.

In Christ,
Michael Tom

Hockey 101

Score! Our 4th & 5th grade students were lucky to hear this when they attended a Wolves hockey game during a recent field trip. The Chicago Wolves had their mascot, Skates, teach our students about hockey. Our children learned how hockey can relate to different subjects in school while learning the basics of hockey. Students also had the opportunity to watch the game, complete some activities and cheer for the Wolves. The best part was that our students had fun while learning and witnessed the Chicago Wolves beat the Texas Stars (3-1). Let's go Wolves!

Welcome The Stranger: Your Support Honors Jesus' Call

Asylum seekers — men, women and children — are arriving in Chicago. Will you welcome the stranger? We are the body of Christ alive in this world. The stranger is hungering and thirsting — Christ is presenting himself to us in their need. We are called to respond with faith and love.

Thousands of people are fleeing violence, political oppression, and overwhelming poverty in Central and South American countries. Since early September, parishes, priests, religious sisters and brothers, church ministries, and Catholic Charities have shown an outpouring of concern for these travelers.

These brothers and sisters in need have revealed to us the fragility, strength, and sacredness of our shared humanity. In turn, they are experiencing the love of Christ through the compassion of volunteers and employees.

Over 3,000 asylum seekers arrived in Chicago by mid-October, and a coordinated Catholic response is underway so we can maximize our collective impact. We are providing pastoral care and considering options such as transitional shelter and parish family sponsorship opportunities.

How You Can Help

Make a financial donation at Mass on November 5th & 6th. A second collection will directly support our collective response. Catholic Charities is serving as the central collection point for donations, which can also be made online at www.catholiccharities.net or by calling 312.655.7525.

Join response efforts by contacting Tori Bawel at Catholic Charities: WelcomeTheStranger@catholiccharities.net

Pray for our brother and sister asylum seekers arriving in Chicago. Pray for these mothers and fathers, sons and daughters, that they are welcomed and embraced with Jesus' compassion — and pray that those serving them are sustained by God's grace.

We will keep you informed, and welcome your questions, support, and prayers.

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Facing her 50th birthday and recently diagnosed with Type-2 Diabetes, Rebecca was at a crossroads. Realizing that she had neglected her health and fitness over the years and allowed herself to gain significant weight, she felt poorly about who she had become. While it was easier to give in to temptation and the gratification received from food, her family needed her, and she desired a long life. She had an image of the person she could become. She wanted to be more trim, focused, disciplined, and healthy. She liked what she saw in her mind and set out on a journey to create it. With great effort, she succeeded and accomplished her goals. When we have a goal ahead of us, we are more apt to do whatever is necessary to get it.

Is heaven a goal you want to achieve? Our popular images and metaphors to describe heaven can leave some people wondering if this is something they want for all eternity. Living like an angel, wearing white robes, meeting St. Peter, and reconnecting with loved ones are all welcome notions to some extent. But do they really inspire and captivate us enough to want to dramatically change how we live our lives? Heaven's reality is more profound than any human image or idea can fathom. Even though we believe in a bodily resurrection, heaven is more about attaining union with God. To achieve heaven is to attain eternal happiness and fulfill all desire. How do we awaken within us an ardent and passionate desire for heaven?

St. Isaac of Ninevah counsels, "Enter eagerly into the treasure house that lies within you, and so you will see the treasure house of heaven, for the two are one and the same, and there is but one single entry into them both. The ladder that leads to the kingdom is hidden with you, and is found in your own soul. Dive into yourself and in your soul you will discover the rungs by which to ascend." Our souls are made to be eternal. Once we discover our true selves and are captivated by the wonder of who we really are, we will unleash our unwavering desire for a lasting union with our Creator. Heaven is about who we are. "For seeing you, our God, as you are, we shall be like you for all the ages." ©LPi

Pro-Life News: The Baby Bottle Project Concludes @ IC - Sunday, November 13th

Next weekend marks the conclusion of the Baby Bottle Project at IC. This annual event supports the mission of The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland (www.gotwc.org) For close to 40 years, this organization has provided pro-life pregnancy assistance and saved the lives of more than 40,000 babies.

Our Pro-Life Group distributed empty baby bottles at all Masses on October 15th & 16th, and directly to students of our school, to be filled over the past few weeks with spare change or bills. All bottles should be returned to our Church or our Parish Office by next Sunday, November 13th. (Checks will also be accepted, made payable to The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland.)

We thank you for your generosity as well as for your continued prayers for greater reverence and protection of all life.

Saint of The Week - Examples of Our Faith: Saint Martin Of Tours (November 11th)

Saint Martin of Tours was born a pagan in what is now Hungary around 316, but he was raised in Italy where his father, a tribune, was posted. At 15 he was compelled to serve in the Roman military, though he was already a catechumen. There is a popular legend that while on campaign the saint cut his cloak in half to share with a cold beggar. That night he dreamed of Jesus and his cloak was restored. He was baptized at 18. Only two years after his baptism, he was released from the military, he had refused his battle pay and to fight saying he was a soldier for Christ. He is the first recognized conscientious objector.

After his release from the military, he became a disciple of Hilary of Poitiers. He worked diligently against the Arian heresy, which denies the divinity of Jesus Christ, and established a community of hermits near Poitiers in 361, the first French monastery.

In 371 he reluctantly became bishop of Tour. Nearby, he founded a second monastery, Marmoutier, because he preferred the life of a monk he retreated often. In 384 there was a popular heresy infecting the Church in Spain, led by the bishop Priscillian and his followers. The emperor Magnus Maximus became involved, ordering the execution of the heretics. Saint Martin opposed the executions and protested the emperor's involvement in Church matters. Unfortunately, the Priscillians were executed anyway.

Saint Martin died in Candes-Saint-Martin, Gaul in 397. He is notably one of the first saints who was not martyred. He is the patron saint of France. ©LPi
