

Welcome to Immaculate Conception Parish

A Catholic Community Inviting People to Follow Christ

October 2, 2022 - Twenty-Seventh Sunday In Ordinary Time

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

*"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control.
So do not be ashamed of your testimony to our Lord...
but bear your share of hardship for the Gospel with the strength that comes from God."
- 2 Timothy 1:7-8*

Monday Morning Bible Study: The Gospel Of John - October 24th

John is known as both the Beloved Disciple and the apostle who was closest to Jesus, and we ought to study his Gospel with special attention, so that we can learn from his example to draw even closer to Christ. John's Gospel is the written witness to his constant, loving pursuit of the Lord. To guide you through the intricate symbols within, Fr. Patrick Winslow carefully explains why this is one of the most beautiful and spiritually powerful books in the whole canon of Scripture. In 28 revealing sessions, written by Scott Hahn and Mark Shea, you will learn:

- Why John's Gospel has the most profound theology of the four Gospels
- Its unique focus on a Christian understanding of the Family
- Why love constitutes the New Law for John and for all of us

John's relationship with the beating heart of Christ is not limited to one person. It is something that Christ begs us to share, if only we will study his beloved disciple's words carefully, and with much prayer. This is exactly the attitude that Fr. Winslow, Scott Hahn, and Mark Shea bring you in this 850+ verse journey into the heart of John's poetic Gospel, as he bares the heart of our Lord to us.

The 28 sessions will meet on Mondays beginning on October 24th. There will be some days off due to holidays, vacations and weather. Each session will run from 10:15 A.M. until Noon. We will meet in our Rectory Assembly (elevator access available). The cost is $50, which covers the required study guide. To register, please fill out the form below and return it with your payment to Immaculate Conception Parish as soon as possible. Please make checks payable to Immaculate Conception Parish. We need to receive your payment by Friday, October 14th to ensure that you will have your study guide by the start of class.

Please include the following form with your check. If you have any questions, please contact Deacon Rick at 773.775.3833, x105 & leave a message, or email him at carmoric@comcast.net.

Pro-Life News: Respect Life Sunday

During the month of October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life. Each week during Respect Life Month, we will offer a specific Word of Life Reflection provided by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

Reflection: "The witness of our Blessed Mother invites us to become more aware of the needs of pregnant and parenting mothers in our own parishes and communities . . . Following Mary's example, we can ask ourselves how to better know these mothers, listen to them, seek understanding and help them obtain the necessities of life for themselves and their children. How can we, like the Blessed Mother, lovingly support mothers in welcoming and caring for God's gift of life?"

Jesus, protect and save the unborn!

Mrs. Rog's Kindergarten Class: Apple Taste Testing

During the month of September, our students learned all about apples in the Apple Unit of our reading book. We had an apple taste testing in our classroom. We tasted red, yellow, and green apples. Then we decided what our favorite apple was by taste. Next, we graphed our favorite on a bar graph on our smart board. Lastly, we copied the data on our own bar graphs. We had a lot of fun tasting and graphing apples!

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

As adults, unless we are dealing with children, “obedience” is not a word we typically like to hear. It often brings connotations of military protocols, deference to superiors at work, or conforming to laws and practices. In a culture that has learned to challenge authority, being obedient is understood more as something I “have” to do, not “want” to do. Do you ever see merit in wanting to be obedient? Encouraged to develop independent, self-sufficient egos and personas, we learn to focus on our own wills and merits as we strive for success and achieve a sense of well-being. Giving ourselves over to the will of another, especially when done blindly, can sometimes carry more risk than we are willing to take. Also, blindly following orders without any deference to ethics or morality can lead to atrocious crimes and violence against humanity.

St. Ignatius of Loyola states, “There are three sorts of obedience; the first, obedience when a strict obligation is imposed upon us, and this is good; the second when the simple word of the superior, without any strict command, suffices for us, and this is better; the third, when a thing is done without waiting for an express command, from a knowledge that it will be pleasing to the superior, and this is the best of all.” St. Ignatius sees obedience as an act of love. When the person we are obeying genuinely has our best interest in mind, acting themselves with love and integrity, then what St. Ignatius says makes excellent sense. When mutual trust and a bond of love and respect are present, obedience can lead to freedom and truth.

We ask God to increase our faith. In other words, increase our trust that God knows best how to live and act in this world. We desire the same confidence, determination, and patience Jesus had that the fulfillment of God’s vision would one day come. Nurturing a deep love of God and trusting in his providence, we obediently do what we know is pleasing to God: love, repent of sin, show mercy, be compassionate and fight injustice. As we willingly give witness to our faith, we do only what we are obliged to do, expecting nothing in return. Spared from the task of having to figure it all out for ourselves, we discover freedom. ©LPi

ST. BRUNO OF COLOGNE

FEAST DAY
OCTOBER 6

Saint of The Week - Examples of Our Faith: Saint Bruno of Cologne (October 6th)

Bruno, born in 1030, is also known as Saint Bruno the Carthusian for the monastic order he founded. He studied in Reims and was ordained in Cologne in 1055. In 1057 he went back to Reims to lead the school, a post he kept for almost 20 years. He was made chancellor of the church of Reims in 1075 but left soon after in protest of the behavior of new bishop Manasses de Gournai who was finally deposed in 1080. Bruno refused the nomination to replace de Gournai as it was his intention to retire to live in solitude and prayer. He had a vision in a dream to go with Bishop (later Saint) Hugh of Grenoble. Bruno, Hugh, and five other religious settled at Chartreuse and founded the Carthusian order in 1084.

This first period of monastic life was not to last long. Bruno was called to help Urban II, a former student of his, against the antipope Guibert of Ravenna and the hostile Holy Roman Emperor Henry IV. While working with Urban II, he rejected another offer to become bishop, this time of Calabria. Eventually Bruno was allowed to return to monastic life. Count Roger of Sicily and Calabria befriend Bruno and the monks of his order, granting them the land where they founded St. Mary's at La Torre. The order was known for its strict asceticism, poverty, and prayer and its unique organization combining the life of the hermit with that of the collective life of traditional monks.

Saint Bruno wrote several commentaries on the psalms and on St. Paul's epistles. He died on October 6, 1101, and was never formally canonized because his order renounces all public honors. However, Pope Leo X gave permission for Carthusians to celebrate his feast in 1514 and his name was added to the Roman calendar in 1623. ©LPi
