Ms. Younatham's 4th Grade ELA (English Language Arts) Class

Our IC 4th grade ELA class worked on different Halloween writings this week. There are four different forms of writing: Fictional Narrative (I was home alone and heard a strange noise...), Procedural (Informed the reader of a witch's brew ingredients), News Article (Student interviewed Frankenstein) and a Journal Entry/Personal Memoir (The best Halloween they ever had). These forms of writing help the reader experience what our students are trying to sense and experience while reading their prompts. Six students worked on one of the four different types of writings. As you can see below, our students worked very creatively on the different topics with their writings and drawings. Happy Halloween!

Pro-Life Reflection

On this final Sunday of Respect Life Month, let us affirm our commitment to the protection of human life in all phases. Sharing our time, talent and treasure we can change hearts. Some specific actions include:

- Recognizing the power of our prayers, continue to pray fervently. Join fellow parishioners this Sunday morning, October 30th, between Masses (9:45 A.M. or so) as we pray the Rosary for Life. We will gather outside at the statue of our Blessed Mother, weather permitting.
- Supporting The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland and other agencies that are dedicated to saving babies from abortion. This year's Baby Bottle Project at our parish concludes on November 13th.
- Understanding the Church teachings that should be considered for an "informed conscience" relative to political issues. Referring to sources such as the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops and Right to Life organizations (at the state and national levels) can be helpful in this process.

"Mary, Mother of the Church, graciously help us build a culture of life and a civilization of love, together with all people of good will, to the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life. Amen."

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Barry had a life sentence in prison for doing unthinkable crimes. He would often remark to the chaplain that he was an atheist and could not bring himself to believe in any “god.” When the chaplain asked why, Barry quickly retorted that the book of Genesis speaks of God creating everything and feeling very good about it. God’s creation of people and things is beautiful. Barry continued, “If there is a God who creates something and likes what He makes and that God is good, then how could He have created someone as evil as me?” The chaplain fell silent as tears welled up in his eyes. “God loves you too, Barry. The stuff that you did is another matter. God puts His image and likeness in each one of us, in our souls. How can God not love himself?” God cannot despise or hate anything or anyone. He made you. Life hurt you. He is always about unconditional love and mercy. Barry found a glimmer of hope that day and was touched by love.

Zacchaeus met love incarnate in Jesus. He knew there was something special about him, and he had to see Jesus for himself. Realizing and knowing God’s unconditional, penetrating love is a game-changer. Sinners don’t repulse Jesus, he wants to eat with them! We can often find ourselves conflicted about how God sees us. We want to believe that He loves us, but other tapes playing in our heads convince us that this cannot be true. We carry our sins around like heavy sacks weighing on our shoulders. We are crippled.

God’s divine blessing lives in each of our souls. It is our essential goodness, a free gift given to us by God. The beginnings of salvation’s blessings are discovered when we begin to understand who God is, who we are, and how we are to act relative to our brothers and sisters. We become more focused and courageous, eager to gather up all of the fragments of our lives and become whole. Zacchaeus, after meeting Jesus, finally knew who he was. He saw his sins and his potential for goodness as a blest child of God. When we allow God to meet us and touch us in such a profound way, we find what our selfishness has lost. We are on the road to salvation. ©LPi

Saint of The Week - Examples of Our Faith: Saint Wolfgang (October 31st)

Saint Wolfgang of Ratisbon (now Regensburg) was born around 934 in Swabia, Germany. The son of a wealthy family, he was tutored in the home before he studied at the Monastery of Reichenau and Wurtzburg. In 956 he elected to go to Trier with his friend, Henry, who was appointed archbishop there. Wolfgang served as a teacher in the cathedral school at Trier.

After his friend's death, he became a Benedictine monk joining a monastery in Augsburg. There he led the school which flourished under his hand and was ordained in 968. In 972 he was sent to be a missionary to the pagan Magyar tribes (Hungarian clans). The Christmas of 972 he was appointed Bishop of Regensburg, near Munich, by Emperor Otto II, the post he would hold until his death.

The new Bishop continued to wear his Benedictine habit and held to the austerities of monastic life. He preached and worked at reform and took such care of the poor he was called "the Great Almoner." The saint also tutored the future Holy Roman Emperor, St. Henry II.

Saint Wolfgang died in 994 while traveling Austria, in the town of Puppingen near Linz. He was canonized in 1052. ©LPi
