Immaculate Conception Parish

A Catholic Community Inviting People to Follow Christ

October 6, 2024 - Twenty-Seventh Sunday In Ordinary Time

May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

"For it was fitting that he, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the leader to their salvation perfect through suffering."

- Hebrews 2:10

Testimonial Tuesday: Revealing The Holy Spirit @ Work In Our Community

We continue our new outreach program entitled "Testimonial Tuesday". Through our testimonies, we showcase how God loves us unconditionally and in the sharing of our story, inspire others to think about how God has met them via His Holy Spirit.

Today's testimony has been given to us by Michael Tom:

Like most of us, I was born into a culture of Church. While I was not "raised" Catholic, I was everything that a good little boy should be. Mom dragged me to Church on a consistent basis and had a strong core of like-minded ladies who made sure that my siblings and I were raised in a manner consistent with their belief. When I was 4 years of age, I sheepishly asked the Lord to be my Savior, not really understanding what I was asking, but asking just the same because that is what was expected of me. And woe to me if I did not do so. The "fear" of the Lord as a little boy has a far different meaning on what the "Fear of the Lord" means in Biblical context.

In 1990, I was on pace to receive the rewards promised. New job, new apartment, new friends. Everything was on the upswing. In May of 1990, a tsunami of personal events transpired starting with a loss of a parent, then loss of a job, loss of a friend, etc. At the time, the mounting losses drew life out of me. Hope vanished due to the overwhelming sense of grief, and not just through the loss of tangible things, but of the expectations associated with being a "good" boy. Doubt rapidly crept in as my expectations faded and I began to question God. Where was He? Why am I experiencing this? Where is my reward? Why was everything taken away from me?

As I struggled to get my feet back underneath me, I returned to where my relationship with God had started. The only thing that made sense at the time was my commitment which I had made as a little boy, and I wanted to know why I was now getting a raw deal. The pastor of my youth had long since retired, but I was hoping to find someone that I could talk with. Anyone who could help me get my life back. There was a gaping hole that needed to be filled, and fast. The Holy Spirit intervened here because the secretary at Church directed me to a therapist at the Northwestern Rehab Institute. Thus began my 3-year journey of rebuilding myself, one layer at a time. Expectation upon expectation, assessed and analyzed. Worthy of keeping? Keep. Piece of trash? Toss. Layer upon layer it continued, as the Holy Spirit continued to delve deeper.

In 1991, my sister told me about a Bible Study Class (BSF) that she had found. Unbeknownst to me, the death of our mother had impacted her as well. The loss of our mother had shaken her faith, and she was looking for answers just as I was. (Side note: if you are ever interested in a deep dive into the Word of God, visit bsfinternational.org). My sister invited me to join her in this Bible study as it was far greater than anything that she had experienced before. Shortly thereafter, while working on my BSF study guide, the Holy Spirit visited me while I was on the CTA. I do not remember my reaction, but I do remember our conversation. He asked me about our relationship. In His eyes, I was a fence-sitter, a 'take God from the shelf when I needed Him' kind of guy. As long as things were going my way, our relationship was good - but when they were not going well, that is another story. Most of all, I remember the Lord telling me that, if this is all that I was willing to give, then that was okay. But, if I wanted to give Him everything, then the places that we would go would have no bounds. I immediately realized that my hopes and desires of being an architect were mine, not His. I was still clinging on to my ideas, my expectations, my hopes – it was still all about me, me, me. This surprised me, because I had worked incredibly hard to get to where I was professionally – so much so that the idea of abandoning my hopes, my expectations, my identity (as an architect) felt catastrophic. Hadn't I lost enough already? But the more I thought about it, the more I realized that I was not fully committed to our relationship if I was holding on to MY dreams. I wept. Not because of what I was losing, but because of what I was doing. To truly understand and appreciate the relationship that I was in, I realized that I had to stop holding back from God. I had to give my hopes and dreams to Him. That was why I was there – in my 'desert experience', The Truth was revealed. With some hesitation, and a bit of trepidation, I recommitted my life to Christ that day. I told Him that if He wanted my job, it was His. I was ready to go to where He would want me. He had me, lock, stock, and barrel. His response floored me: "Stay right where you are."

Flash forward 30+ years. A beautiful wife and four kids later, I can now see that it has been a most amazing adventure. In retrospect, I give thanks for these events and the gifts I received because I now understand why they happened when they did. And best of all, the adventure continues...and you are a part of it. - Michael

This Weekend: The Baby Bottle Project Begins

Each October, the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. During October, we are asked to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life. (See www.respectlife.org/celebrate for more information.)

As is our parish tradition, IC will mark Respect Life Month by participating in The Baby Bottle Project to benefit the life-saving mission of The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland (www.goTWC.org.) This weekend - October 5th & 6th - the Pro Life Committee will distribute baby bottles at all Masses to bring home and collect spare change to help fund the work of supporting life. More details will be forthcoming during October.

Third Grade Engineers

Our Third Grade students in Mrs. Fritz's classroom were hard at work this week learning about and building Rube Goldberg Machines! After learning how to test and improve solutions during their Science lesson, students were then tasked with the challenge of getting a marble to land in a cup. In order to do this, students had to first make a plan with their group by brainstorming ideas, followed by making a list of materials they could use and creating a sketch of what it might look like.

Our students got creative using recycled materials and items around the classroom to get their marble from the starting point into the cup. It was great to see so much creativity and excitement in our classroom! Our students learned the process of starting with an idea, testing it and modifying the build to achieve success. Using teamwork, all of the Third Grade children in Room 16 worked hard and learned while having fun with their classmates!

Please join our parish family in prayer ...

IRELAND PILGRIMAGE

August 25—September 3, 2025

You are invited to join Father Matt Heinrich on this customized and private journey that will immerse you in the rich history and spirituality of Ireland. Highlights include panoramic tours of Dublin's iconic landmarks, the sacred Cliffs of Moher, the historic Galway City, and a journey to the Shrine of Our Lady of Knock, where the Blessed Mother appeared in 1879. Throughout your travels, Mass will be celebrated in significant locations, you will savor traditional meals and enjoy authentic Irish entertainment. Experience Ireland's deep Catholic roots and witness its breathtaking landscapes on this unforgettable pilgrimage. This journey begins and ends in Dublin, and then returns to the USA.

A personal note from Fr. Matt: The rich faith of the Irish people has influenced and served the Church the world over. I look forward to sharing this opportunity with you. Ireland is home to countless people in our neighborhood, but just as important is its legacy of faith. As I helped to organize this trip, my concern was both the beauty of faith and the beauty of the land itself. Combining both religious sites as well as natural sites, I hope to express the glory of God by visiting Ireland.

Have access to the whole brochure below:

Ireland Trip Information
