From The Desk Of Our Director Of Worship...

Dear IC Parishioners,

It is with a mixture of happiness and sadness that we say a temporary goodbye to our soprano section leader, Julie Malecki. Julie and her husband Marty are happily expanding their family. With a toddler at home and a daughter on the way, Julie has decided that a weekly commitment is not in the cards for her right now. We wish both Julie & Marty all the best, and we hope to hear her occasionally when she subs for one of our other section leaders or rings with our Handbell choir.

With that said, I have recently auditioned two singers to replace the soprano section leader and expand our men's section with an additional tenor. I will keep you informed as to our progress once we have additional singers in place.

Thank you for your continued support of IC Music Ministry!

Best,
Scott

Welcome Back To Our Seminarians, Joseph & Jacob...

On Sunday, September 3rd, at our 8:30 A.M. & 10:30 A.M. Masses, we warmly welcomed back our Seminarians, Joseph Mick & Jacob McGuire, both from the Diocese of Wichita, Kansas, who have been assigned to our parish as a part of Mundelein Seminary's Tolton Teaching Parish Program. This will be Joseph's third year at IC, while Jacob is joining us for his second year.

Updates from Joseph & Jacob will appear in a subsequent bulletin, but in the meantime, please keep both our Seminarians in your prayers as they faithfully serve our IC community this year and continue their vocation journey with us.

STEM With Mrs. Olker

This is our first day of STEM team building exercises. Our students needed to create the longest paper chain in the allotted time using only 1 sheet of paper and 12 inches of tape. Discussion about the width of strips and which way to cut the paper became important factors to consider, while different ways to cut and distribute the tape also made a difference in the successful completion of their task.

Please join our parish family in prayer ...

Patriot Day: In Remembrance Of Those Whose Lives Were Lost...

Blessing for the Fallen of 9/11

God of mercy, in your word of Scripture, you instruct us to "Do to others as you would have them do to you."

Give us today the courage to assist those around us who may need our assistance. Give us patience when we become impatient.

Remind us to pray for all those who perished on United Airlines 93, American Airlines 11, United Airlines 175, American Airlines 77, and those in the Twin Towers and Pentagon.

Give us a heart thankful for those who gave their lives as first responders, as did the men and women who ran into danger to be of aid.

We ask all this in the name of the One who first responded to our need for a savior, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

Gospel Meditation - Encourage A Deeper Understanding Of Scripture

What are you supposed to do about the bad behavior of the people around you? You know who I'm talking about. That family member, friend, coworker, or acquaintance who is quite immoral. On this front there are two lively options in our culture: bash the person to others (probably online) or pretend everything's fine. The former damages the person. The latter ignores reality. What to do?

Jesus' strategy in the Gospel of Matthew is as wise as it is difficult: go directly to the person, and then gradually expand the circle of intervention. Simple, often effective, and hard. But what we often miss is the context of the Lord's strategy, "If your brother sins against you..." Notice the italicized words. Is the person in a Christian familial bond with you? And was the action in question against you? If so, proceed with the plan. Fine. But how often we fret over the sins of those who either aren't our spiritual siblings or have done nothing directly to us. This is not an invitation to ignore injustice in the world. Rather, we should build bonds of fraternal love, and carefully discern when and how others' sins are indeed our concern. Sometimes they are. Other times — frequently, perhaps — they simply are not.

— Father John Muir

*(Practicing) Catholic: Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments...Love and truth...

I think even the most devout, the most pious Catholic reading this could summon to mind, if asked, one or even two examples of Catholic teaching for which they have desperately looked for a loophole.

Don't worry, I won't make you share with the group. But bring it to your mind now: the doctrine you once resented, or perhaps still do. The commandment you don't fully understand, the one you bristle against. The rule you find the hardest to follow. The belief you hate explaining to your friends.

If it disappeared from scripture or dropped out of the catechism, would your life really be easier? Would you be happier?

I am thinking of mine. For a long time, I searched high and low for a way around this particular teaching. I read books and Scripture and tradition, I prayed and reflected and tried to argue with myself. For a time, I gave up complying with it entirely. I threw it to the wind, with a shoulder shrug and a self-satisfied assurance to myself that God, being a loving father, does not want his child to be unhappy.

But reader: I was miserable. I was so, so miserable, and I stayed that way until I finally accepted that God is, indeed, a loving father, and desires nothing less than the unhappiness of his children. And so, to ward it off, he has given us the truth, and asked us to share it amongst ourselves like a cherished heirloom, a priceless inheritance.

To share truth, you must show love. To show love, you must share truth. One demands the other. Because this is what Christ does for us, and this is the mission of the Church in this world. Loosening and binding. Bearing witness. Giving testimony. Speaking truth, and in speaking truth, showing love.

"If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts." – Psalm 95 – Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman © LPi
