

Welcome to
Immaculate Conception Parish

A Catholic Community Inviting People to Follow Christ

September 13, 2020 - Twenty-Fourth Sunday In Ordinary Time

"Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven."

- Sirach 28:2

Love God, Serve Others, Make Disciples

Immaculate Conception Parish

Worship...

Gather with us virtually as we pray with, and for, one another during our Masses which are broadcast live through Twitch TV (www.twitch.tv/icchicago) and through Facebook Live on our Facebook page: Immaculate Conception Parish Chicago (Talcott). Direct links to both platforms are easily accessible on our parish website (www.icparish.net). For your convenience, all Masses are recorded and archived for a limited time.

Support IC through Give Central...

We are truly grateful for the continued generosity of our faithful parishioners as we would not be able to maintain our parish and continue our mission without you.

If you are able, please consider contributing electronically via Give Central at www.givecentral.org/location/349 to assist us in maintaining the vital ministries and services we provide on behalf of our community. If you have any questions regarding setting up your online donations through Give Central, please contact our Parish Office at 773.775.3833 and a member of our Parish Staff will be happy to assist you.

If you would prefer to support our parish with an offertory donation through cash or check, please mail your envelopes to our Parish Office at:

7211 W. Talcott Avenue, Chicago, IL. 60631.

"You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God." - 2 Corinthians 9:11

Updates Around Our Parish...

As we move into the month of September, there is a lot happening here at IC. Normally, I would write something more spiritual, but I thought it would be useful to provide you with an update on several of our efforts in one place:

1) A New Website

We recognize during this time that online interaction and ministry is an essential aspect of parishes. To that end, we are designing a new website which will better integrate our social media and assist us in more effectively communicating information to our community. It will feature a nice, updated look. Our hope is to have it go live sometime in the ballpark of November.

2) Music

I think we can all agree that our music has been wonderful and uplifting. This is part of our long-term plan to transform our culture within our parish community by improving our weekend experience. We perhaps can agree that sound is even more essential than visuals with regards to liturgy and worship. In addition to our in-person Masses, Scott and I have worked hard to bring the sound of our choir to your home with our online Masses as well.

Did you know that we have recorded over 2 ½ hours of music so far? We plan to record even more for your benefit. One thing we do ask: please continue to support our Music Ministry program through our monthly collection, either by using your gray Music Ministry envelope, or by donating electronically through Give Central: <https://www.givecentral.org/location/349/event/17649>. Your generosity not only allows us to continue our music at our present pace, but to look towards expanding our Music Ministry program as well!

3) Sound System

We have talked about it for quite some time now, but we will soon initiate the work on our new Sound System. I am particularly excited because the natural acoustics of our Church are excellent, and this new system should accentuate them well. We hope the work concludes in October. This will include streaming capabilities. We will work with this system before it goes live, so I do not have a timetable for its implementation at this time. I would like to make sure we provide the same audio and video quality in our Church for our streaming Masses as we have in our temporary chapel.

4) Social Media

We have dedicated more time to our parish Facebook page, including our online Masses, sign-ups, etc., and we will soon add additional content.

Likewise, we also have accounts with YouTube (Immaculate Conception) and Twitch (twitch.tv/icchicago). I am writing and creating content for our YouTube channel centered around our music and featuring prayer. Twitch is used for livestreaming, primarily for Mass currently, but I would like to expand to other offerings in the future.

5) Campus Updates

From internet, to painting, to carpeting, and cosmetic touch-ups, there are lots of little things being done behind the scenes to make us more efficient and better able to serve our community, all of which we intend to highlight soon.

In the meantime, thank you for all of your support so far. Along with our school, please be assured that my entire team and I are working our hardest to improve IC and live our mission daily. Making disciples of Christ requires dedication and passion, and I see this on a daily basis from those I work with. God, who is the source of all goodness, allows us to see what is good and cultivate it. Thank you for working with me to honor God and bring His Word to our community.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We are still actively recruiting additional volunteers to help staff our Greeting and Cleaning teams (led by our dedicated Captains, Darlene Mroz & Joe Jummati). If the Spirit moves you and you would like to volunteer to assist us with our ongoing reopening process, please complete our Parish Reopening Team Volunteer Form which is easily accessible on our parish website at www.icparish.net. We are particularly seeking volunteers to assist us with either our First Friday 5:30 P.M. Mass & Adoration and/or our Saturday evening Mass at 5:00 P.M. – which we plan to resume beginning on Saturday, September 19th.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration!

Second Collection for Christians in the Holy Land...

September 13, 2020

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer Religious Education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines. The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

Please be generous!

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

What right do we have to limit the amount and degree of forgiveness we show to others when we are so desperately in need of it ourselves? In not wanting someone who hurt us to downplay or forget the gravity of their wrong, we cling to anger, resentment, and wrath as a way of maintaining control. It is a way to acknowledge and express our deep hurt. We fail to realize that in doing so we hold ourselves hostage to these destructive feelings and actually become mired in the bondage of sin. All we gain is further alienation from ourselves, others, and especially God. We are no longer free but tethered to all of this unresolved negativity. Don't we really want to let it go? The fact is that we need to.

A good self-reflective posture will quickly show us that when the shoe is on the other foot and we are the ones in need of forgiveness, we desire it above anything else. This is especially true with our relationship with God. It is hypocritical to want one thing for ourselves and something else for another. Yet, many act in precisely this way.

Perhaps we think that in offering forgiveness, even for the most grievous of wrongs, somehow excuses the person of their wrong and makes it almost acceptable. This is what makes revenge, retaliation, and punishment so attractive. We see forgiveness as being an eraser that easily wipes away the offense without consequence. Or, we may believe that in offering forgiveness I must somehow forget the wrong and open myself as a victim of even greater possible hurts in the future. In fact, forgiving my sister or brother of their wrongful actions or attitudes involves none of this. It does not erase anything or position me vulnerably as a doormat to be walked on.

Forgiveness is an act of freedom that restores honest dialogue, shares true, and heartfelt feelings and acknowledges the consequences of an action. It admits that the wrong has caused a hurt that must be healed and squarely positions responsibility on the offender. The act of forgiveness recognizes our sinfulness and brokenness. It also admits that the most saintly among us is capable of doing very grave and deep harm to another person. It sees that we all can be victims of our passions and works in progress that deserve unlimited chances to get it right. With forgiveness, I release myself from the bonds of negativity and pursue a path of restoration, wholeness, and healing. I do not forget the wrong nor do I dismiss it. Sometimes, we have to stay far away from the one who hurt us. But we can still heal internally and be free. For the one who wants to be forgiven and the one who needs to offer forgiveness, the journey can be an adventure in learning what brought us to this place and what is needed to move forward. This is exactly how God treats us. Why would we not want to do the same for others?

Everyday Stewardship – Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments

Should I Stay or Should I Go?...

Life is not always easy on us and it can be hard to figure out the next step to take in our journey. We can even become immobilized by indecisiveness and fear about making the wrong move or choosing the incorrect path. I think of the song, Should I Stay, or Should I Go, as a mantra for many times in my life. Should I stay in this house, this job, or this car? Should I go here or there? When those times of decision surface, I usually turn to my wife, my friends, or even my children. Talking it out can help, and their perspectives give me more data to consider. When I lean on others to help me make a decision, it helps me become more confident in my choices.

Discerning the will of God is not easy either. Rarely do we understand God's calling clearly at first. God's calling is always more easily discerned within a community of faithful disciples. Our stewardship way of life can suffer greatly if we refuse to allow others to assist us in the process of discernment. What gifts or talents are needed for the task at hand? Where do I fit best into God's plan? Where is God leading me? No one should have to decide the answers to these questions alone. We need to always lean on the Body of Christ to help us see the path that God has laid before us. Without a little help along the journey, over time we might find ourselves stuck in the same place where we started.
