New Ministries, Programs, and Projects

Last weekend for World Mission Sunday, I reflected on the letter from the Apostle John where he wrote, “for whoever does not love a brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen” (1 John 4:20b).

Loving the brother we can see does mean charity, it is true. But Christian love is not so easily compartmentalized and segmented. We cannot be disciples of Christ giving to the poor only – as necessary as corporal works of mercy are.

Christ formed us into a community of believers, not a confederation of individuals connected by circumstance. “Loving the brother you can see” means loving our community and those in it. It means investing yourself more deeply into prayer, spiritual growth, and personal maturity.

To that end, with our Alpha program beginning, we are growing as a team and as a program. We expect 20-30 participants (as of this writing), with people from other parishes – we see all Catholics as our brethren in faith, and all non-Catholics who seek an upright way of life as fellow-searchers with us. Alpha welcomes them all. Our team, now sixteen people strong, is ready to serve again, and for this I am thankful.

They are serving the brother they can see by calling others to an opportunity for a deeper faith.

We are beginning a new group for our Alpha Alumni called “Connect.” In it, we seek to connect parishioners to one another, but also to guide them to see how they, as individuals, connect to the mission of Christ. This program represents a movement into Phase 2 of our long-term plan, working towards the goal of “equipping parishioners for ministry.”

On Saturday, October 15th, we will host a Day of Reflection for all of our leaders. This day of prayer will begin at 11:00 A.M., concluding with a Holy Hour leading up to our 5:00 P.M. Mass on Saturday. My focus will be on the leadership of Christ and His Mission.

I will also begin working with our teachers monthly. As ministers and coworkers with me, I believe the impact they have on our children’s faith is second only to their parents. As extensions of our Church and collaborators with my ministry as a priest, I hope I can equip them for their unique and important ministry with our children.

Our Seminarians are back with us and will be assisting me on a few things, from prayers to reflections. Please look forward to our Reflection Series “Fruitful Harvest” which will return in October.

We are also offering a new hospitality feature called our Coffeehouse. As an avid lover of coffee, I promise the coffee we offer will be high quality. I have also asked various groups in our parish to help host this special monthly gathering so that you can meet those who work for our parish in many capacities. It will start on Sunday, October 2nd, after our 8:30 A.M. Mass (open approximately from 9:30 A.M. until 12:30 P.M.). Meant to be light and social, we will even have the Bears Game on as needed.

With all that said, I hope you see that Fall and Winter this year have a robust lineup – and there is more to come. Thank you for your support of us, and I hope you can support these new efforts to help us grow.

- Fr. Matt

Please support the men seeking to answer God's call to a life of service as a priest for the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Extra envelopes are available in the Vestibule of our Church this weekend, or you may make a gift online at archchicago.org/seminarianfund. Please be generous (if you are able.)

Gospel Meditation - Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

"You cannot serve both God and mammon." Merriam-Webster defines mammon as material wealth or possessions, especially having a debasing influence. While God does not take issue with our need to use money for the business of our lives, there can be a problem with the attitudes we bring to it. We can easily become so preoccupied and obsessed with money that it becomes the real "god" we worship. Do we serve mammon instead of God? In their book, Wealth, Riches and Money, Craig Hill and Earl Pitts outline symptoms of mammon's influence in our lives. Some of these are worry and anxiety over money, money mismanagement, fear over "never having enough," an "I can't afford it" mentality, impulse buying, stinginess, greed, debt, and discontent.

Many of the things on that list can consume us to the point that we are distracted from what we really need to be doing. Many people spend an inordinate amount of time worrying about money and it becomes the source of their worst fears. If we are honest with ourselves, we need to admit that we place far more emphasis on our material securities than we ought. In fact, we have actually convinced ourselves that we cannot live without it. Are we that certain about the presence of God? Many of the world's problems, especially those involving inequity and injustice, result from conflicts about money. Many equate money with happiness. Those successful in accumulating large amounts of it quickly realize just how wrong they are.

"Your ultimate allegiance is not to the government, not to the state, not to nation, not to any man-made institution. The Christian owes his ultimate allegiance to God, and if any earthly institution conflicts with God's will it is your Christian duty to take a stand against it. You must never allow the transitory evanescent demands of man-made institutions to take precedence over the eternal demands of the Almighty God (Martin Luther King, Jr.)." This is the point Jesus is trying to make. Unfortunately, when we look around our man-made kingdoms are far more prevalent than God's kingdom. When we start seeing greater evidence of justice, equity, dignity, respect, opportunity, gentleness, holiness, solidarity, honesty, simplicity, care for creation, and a decrease in ambition, then we will know that God's kingdom is being served. We will be doing what we are supposed to do. ©LPi

Saint of The Week - Examples of Our Faith: Saint Pius of Pietrelcina (September 23rd)

Best known as Padre Pio, St. Pius was born Francesco Forgione in 1887 in Pietrelcina, Italy. As a young boy he suffered many illnesses including typhoid. He joined Capuchin Franciscans at 15 and took the name of Pius or "Pio" in honor of Pope Pius I. He was ordained in 1910, and at this time he received the marks of stigmata, the wounds of Christ, but they eventually healed. Frequent illnesses continued to plague him as a young man.

Padre Pio served in the Italian Medical Corps during World War I, but he was discharged early because of illness, which was likely tuberculosis. He was assigned to the friary in San Giovanni Rotondo. In 1918, while continuing to serve at the friary, the stigmata appeared again, and this time remained until his death.

Many faithful came to see him at the friary, his days were long, beginning with Mass at 5:00 A.M. then hearing confessions all day with breaks to bless the sick. A simple man, content to do God's will on earth and with the ardent desire to serve the sick and poor in whom he saw Christ, he urged a hospital, Casa Sollievo della Sofferenza (House for the Relief of Suffering), to be built in San Giovanni Rotondo. It opened in 1956.

Padre Pio died at the age of eighty-one in 1968 and in 2002 Pope John Paul II proclaimed him "St. Pio of Pietrelcina." ©LPi
