IC Cowboys Football Homecoming: Sunday, September 17th

On Sunday, September 17th, our IC Football Homecoming celebration opened with Mass @ 8:30 A.M. with our Football Teams & Cheerleaders all receiving a special blessing from Fr. Matt. Breakfast followed afterward in the School Cafeteria prior to eventually departing for Notre Dame College Prep for the games. Congratulations to both our JV & Varsity Football Teams on their resounding victories over Wilmette Catholic (26-6 & 36-0, respectively). Go Cowboys!

Jr. Kindergarten with Mrs. Babiez

Our students in Mrs. Babiez's Jr. Kindergarten classroom (4-year-old preschool) started off the school year with a Parent/Child Orientation. This allowed them to get acquainted with their teachers, their classroom and their classroom pet, Gia, a Leopard Gecko. They are now meeting new friends, adapting to our class and school routines, and focusing on learning, such as 'the letter of the week.' They also participate in Art, Music, Library and Gym class every week. IC Preschool is 'the place to be'!

Please join our parish family in prayer ...

Gospel Meditation: Encourage A Deeper Understanding Of Scripture - Fr. John Muir

Once I gave my three-year-old niece a certain toy for Christmas. When she opened it, she was happy. Shortly thereafter her five-year old sister opened another present from me: the same toy, along with some play jewelry. The three-year-old cried out: "That's not fair! Why'd she get the jewelry, too?!"

Let's face it: there's something about God's grace in our religion which bugs us. We love to look at others' blessings and cry out: "That's not fair!" Catholicism is not fair in the sense that it is a religion founded on God's grace which is unmerited favor. God pours his mercy, love, and divine life upon us not because we're good but because He is infinitely good.

If you think the "not fair" quality of grace is easy to accept, consider how typically angry we get when we hear the parable of the workers who get paid way more than they deserve. The hyper-generous landowner says to the indignant hard workers, "Are you envious because I am generous?" Well, yes, they are, and so are we! Therefore, we have to reckon with this painful truth in order to move into the divine sphere of gifts, which is the world of Christ and his Church. Then we are able to move beyond a tit-for-tat world and into one where gifts are poured forth on those who don't deserve it — namely, upon us. ©LPi

The Invitation to the Vineyard...

I have been working since I was 17, and in that time, I've encountered my fair share of bosses who don't like being, well, fair.

There was the retail gig that paid me less than the official minimum wage because I was a minor and scheduled me for long shifts because it meant cheaper labor. There was the restaurant manager who tried to convince me to leave seventh period early so I could waitress on a busy dinner shift (totally illegal, by the way). There was the unpaid internship with the editor who had no sense of work/life balance.

Our resumes are all full of these experiences — it's capitalism, after all. It conditions us to look out for ourselves, because we know no one else will. And it breeds an attitude of suspicion that often blooms into jealousy when we encounter the reckless mercy of God.

Most of us work hard for what we have in this life, and so we make the mistake of thinking we deserve the good things that come our way. That's all right and good when we're talking about a just wage. But sometimes we get our lines blurred and we begin to think we deserve, or have done something to earn, the salvation offered by Christ.

I am not the laborer who has borne the heat of long hours in the sun. I am the straggler, the lost one, the idler at the marketplace as the day draws to a close.

"As high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways, and my thoughts above your thoughts." — Isaiah 55:9
